LOCKE CRAIG AND DAUGHTRIDGE TO HEAD THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

STATE CONVENTION NORTH CAROLINA

Great Gathering of "The Unterrified" Assembled in Raleigh Yesterday.

SESSION FAR INTO MORNING

Endorsement of Simmons Precipitates Two Hours' Fight—No Vote on Baltimore Delegates Until Today — Result.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Convention Hall, Raleigh, N. C., June 7. (5:00 A. M.)—After an all-night sitting of the Democratic State Convention in session here almost continuously since yesterday noon, during which Locke Craig, of Buncombe, was nominated by acclamation for Governor; E. L. Daughtridge, of Edgecombe, on the fifth ballot for Lieutenant Governor; Geo. P. Pell, of Forsyth, and E. L. Travis, of Halifax, for Corporation Commissioners, the remainder of the State ticket without opposition, and after the endorsement of Senator Simmons and others of the State's representatives in Congress, following a fight by the Kitchin forces, the unterrified Democracy of North Carolina, with the dawn of morning, today sent to the Baltimore convention a solid, but an uninstructed, delegation for Woodrow Wilson for the Presidency.

There were two tickets in the field for delegates, one by ex-Judge Crawford Biggs, floor leader of the Wilson forces, and another by R. N. Hackett, an uninstructed delegation. The Wilson delegates were named and Judge Biggs gave notice that he would offer a vote for "endorsement" rather than for "instructions" for Wilson, the forces of the Jerseyman having abandoned the idea of forcing instructions through the convention.

The convention proceeded to the election of Presidential electors at large at 4:30 A. M. While waiting for the vote for delegates to be announced, the following were nominated: James H. Pou, Raleigh; C. O. McMichael, Rockingham; Ellis Gardner, Yancey; Sam. B. Martin, Washington; F. D. Winston, Bertie, and John D. Bellamy, of New Hanover. On motion of Abernethy, of Beaufort, F. D. Winston was named by acclamation as one of the electors, and Ellis Gardner for the Western section.

The process of the election of electors is being reconsidered just before adjournment at 5 o'clock this morning.

It is the greatest convention on record, and is perhaps the most largely attended in years.

It was 2:50 o'clock this morning when the business of naming delegates to the National Convention was declared in order, and a resolution was adopted to elect eight delegates with half a vote each. Conflicting shouts for Wilson and Underwood then arose all over the hall. J. Crawford Biggs arose, presumably to propose Wilson delegates. He could not be heard. Max Gardner came down the aisle with a Wilson picture on a staff. It was brought on the stage, and pandemonium broke forth for the second time during the night. The Underwood forces persisted in confusion.

The delegation Biggs named finally were as follows: E. J. Hale, Cumberland; E. J. Justice, Greensboro; J. S. Carr, Durham; R. B. Glenn, Forsyth; W. C. Hammer, Randolph; W. C. Newland, Caldwell; A. W. McLean, Robeson, and W. C. Dowd, Mecklenburg.

R. N. Hackett, for an uninstructed delegation, endorsed A. W. McLean, and proposed in addition W. T. Dortch, Goldsboro; H. G. Chatham, Forsyth; J. D. Murphy, Buncombe; Charles R. Thomas, Craven; W. T. Crawford, Haywood county; J. D. Bellamy, New Hanover.

There were numerous seconding speeches, with general and long confusion.

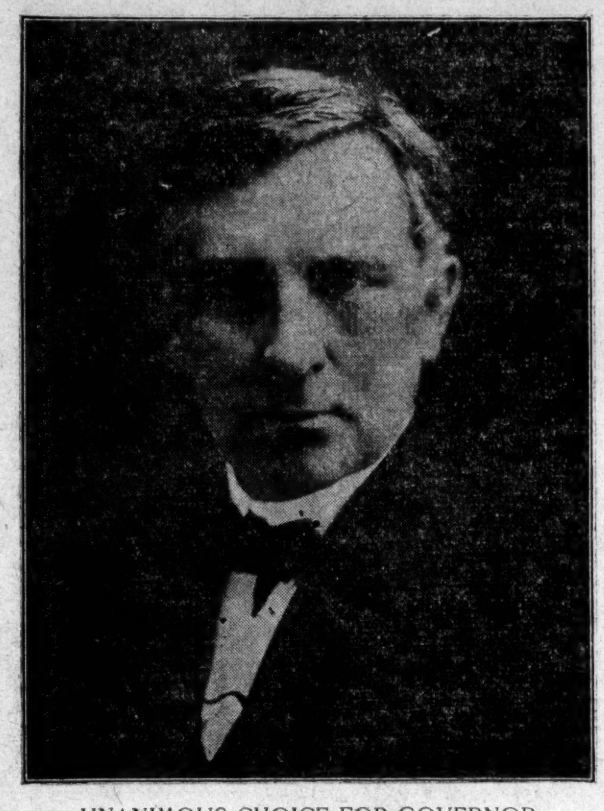
Glenn and Craig Speak

In taking charge of the convention as temporary chairman, former Governor R. B. Glenn declared the North Carolina convention one of the preliminary engagements for one of the greatest political contests that the Nation has ever experienced.

He review the course of the National Republican party, denouncing especially the Payne-Aldrich bill and legislation with constant trend for increased cost of living for the common people.

He declared, amid wild applause, that it matters not whether "Ultra-protectionist Taft," or "the falsely-progressive, and violent man of the big stick, Roosevelt," is nominated by the Republicans, it will be impossible for either candidate to get the united support of the party.

On the other hand, a united Democracy stands squarely before the people with a record for reducing the ever-climbing cost of living, and, with a record of pledges fulfilled, and devotion to principle that entitles the party to the confidence and support of the people. Democrats, he declared to be the party of progress.



UNANIMOUS CHOICE FOR GOVERNOR.

Governor Glenn declared the Democratic policy in North Carolina has brought North Carolina to a place as one of the very foremost States of the entire Southland. He appealed for Democracy to take a firm and advanced stand for road-building throughout the State and for continued progress in educational matters. He urged that Democrats declare for free wool, free sugar and general lowering of taxation on the necessities of life. Along with the tariff for revenue only, he advocated too, a graduated income tax, a declaration against all subsidies and such like, and for the return to the "simple life of the Nation."

Following his nomination by acclamation for Governor, Hon. Locke Craig spoke eloquently of his appreciation and his conception of the significance of the pending campaign, and its bearing on the welfare of the State and Nation. He expressed profound gratitude for his nomination as a distinction too pre-eminent, coming not from his deserts, but from the generosity of Democracy. No other Governor has been nominated by acclamation, save the peerless Aycock in 1900, who with the zeal of a crusader devoted his intellect and his soul to the task that was laid upon him. He declared he welcomes the opportunity for service that quickens and calls for all his strength and more. He declared his purpose to devote himself to the welfare of the State and all her citizens.

He declared his unfaltering faith in the cause and principles of Democracy, and triumph in the pending conflict. He pronounced this an epoch significant with destiny, and declared that laws and institutions must be adjusted to conditions of modern progress. This he conceived to be the mission of the Democratic party. The crisis, he said, is upon us.

"Mr. Rooseveit thinks he produced it, but he is a sympton of it—an eruption."

Material development in the country at large has been accompanied by a corresponding intellectual and moral development, due to wrong conditions. The law itself under Republican rule has been a bond servant of united extortion and of insatiable greed. Democracy must change conditions; there must be protection from extortion and not protection for extortioners. The things Democracy has stood for and accomplished were reviewed. The ardent dreams of Democrats of yesterday, he declared, are today the vociferate voice of public opinion, and tomorrow the charter of the Nation. Democracy is everywhere advancing, united and better minded as never before.

Dealing with State issues, Mr. Craig reviewed the redemption of the State in 1900, and her progress under Democratic administrations and the wonderful industrial and intellectual development that has come.

'We contemplate with satisfaction," he said, "the administration of Gov. Kitchin." He paid tribute to the North Carolina delegation in Congress, mentioning especially Simmons and Overman as the ablest exponents and leaders of Democracy.

He declared for justice, for protection of the weak, the elimination of monopoly and for material, moral and intellectual development, closing with a peroration on Carolina's past, her splendid present and promise for a more glorious future.

Afternoon Session.

The convention re-assembled at 3:15 o'clock. The committee on permanent organization reported Francis D. Winston, an Underwood man for permanent chairman; Walter Murphy, Rowan, for permanent secretary, and recommended that there be no nomination speeches for those candidates for State officers that have no opposition. This report was adopted.

Hon. Francis D. Winston, taking the chair, was wildly applauded. Introducing him Governor Glenn said it was his good fortune to have for Lieutenant Governor during his administration this distinguished citizen who always rang true on every issue. Chairman Winston declared his purpose to apply parliamentary rules.

The first business was the nomination for Governor. The name of Hon. Locke Craig was presented by Felix Alley, of Jackson county. Mr. Alley declared in a spirited speech that no man more deserves the nomination than Hon. Locke Craig. His service to the party was reviewed and loudly applauded, especially the service rendered in the campaign following his defeat at Charlotte by Kitchin for the Gubernatorial nomination. Mr. Alley's speech was considered too long by some of the delegates who raised an uproar. The band intervened. Then Chairman Winston declared he would deliver no curtain lecture, but that the speaker was naming the next Governor of two millions of people, and the convention owed it to the people they represented to give him a decent hearing. It was a beautiful speech. Mr. Alley closed amid great aplause, and the nomination by acclamation followed. Then general and strenuous calls for Craig followed. A committee was sent to bring the next Governor to the hall.

R. H. Hackett was recognized and offered a resolution that was adopted with a will, nominating without ceremony the following State officers: Secretary of State, J. Bryan Grimes, of Pitt; State Treasurer, B. R. Lacy, of Wake; State Auditor, Col. W. P. Wood, of Randolph; Attorney General, T. W. Bickett; Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. Y. Joyner, of Guilford; Commissioner of Agriculture, W. A. Graham, of Lincoln; Commissioner of Labor and Printing, M. L. Shipman, of Henderson; Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, Geo. H. Brown and W. A. Hoke.

The committee then entered with the Hon. Locke Craig. Members of the convention stood and the band played as the party advanced to the stage. Mr. Craig was presented by Governor Glenn as one of the purest citizens and statesmen in all North Carolina. Mr. Craig spoke for 50 minutes, that speech being heard with the closest attention and enthusiasm.

Mr. Craig closed at 4:30 o'clock, and a demonstration in his honor followed. Thereafter, Hon. A. W. McLean, of Robeson, was presented and reported as to the action of the State Democratic Executive Committee for holding the Senatorial primary on election day and a second primary November 26th, if necessary. E. L. Travis seconded a motion to adopt and the primary arrangements were unanimously ratified.

The nomination of Lieutenant Governor was declared in order. R. N. Hackett moved that the nominating speeches be limited to five minutes. Chairman Winston put the question as three minutes, and it carried as three minutes amid applause.

J. Sprunt Newton, of Fayetteville, nominated James G. Shaw, of Cumberland.

R. W. Turner, of Pasquotank, nominated Walter E. Daniel, of Weldon.

E. W. Stacy, of Robeson county, nominated Col. E. F. McRae, of Robeson.

F. S. Spruil, of Nash county, nominated E. L. Daughtridge, of Edgecombe.

The convention would not hear any seconding speeches.

The first ballot resulted: Daniel 288.78, Daughtridge 193.76, Boushall 103.76, McRae 150.36, Shaw 228.18.

While the first ballot was being counted the convention ratified the district nomination of H. A. Foushee, Frank Carter, Stephen C. Bragaw as Superior Court judges.

The chair declared that there having been 976 votes cast for Lieutenant Governor, 488 was necessary for nomination. There was no nomination. Delegates were directed to prepare their ballots for a second roll call.

The second ballot resulted: Daniels 344.68; Daughtridge 219.41, Shaw 265.44, Boushall 20.36, McRae 122.11.

Third ballot—Daniel 453.31, Shaw 212.51; Daughtridge 236.74, McRae 57.45, Boushall 2.68.

The roll call vote on adjournment was against adjournment by a big majority. The name of Col. E. F. McRae was withdrawn.

Fourth ballot—Daniel 393, Daughtridge 355, Shaw 201.50, Boushall 1.61, McRae 2.50.

On the fifth ballot Daughtridge was declared elected, having received 588 votes.

The report of the committee on platform precipitated a great fight over the question of endorsing the North Carolina delegation in Congress. The majority report of the committee on platform, read by Cameron Morrison, declared for the endorsement of the Senators and Representatives in Congress and the State administration by the Governor and State officers. The minority excepted to the clause and proposed as a substitute: "We heartily endorse the record of the Democratic party, State and National."

J. S. Moring read the minority report and declared that there being a

THE MONEY TRUST INQUIRY IS BEGUN

House Committee Probes New York Clearing House Association

NEEDS JUDICAL REGULATION

William Sherer, Manager of the Association, Admits as Much on Stand—Wields Immense Power Over Banks

New York, June 6.—The immense power wielded by the New York Clearing House Association over the banks of the country's financial center and arbitrarily lodged in the hands of five men should be placed under judicial regulation, it was conceded by William Sherer, manager of the association, on the witness stand today.

Mr. Sherer was the chief witness at the first hearing presented by the House Committee on Banking and Currency which is investigating the so-called "Money Trust." The committee came to New York today to take such testimony as its powers will permit, pending the passage of the amendment to the banking law, now in the Senate, under which the committee hopes to be able to enforce from banks its demands for the information which it expects to make the basis of remedial legislation.

While today's inquiry was characterized by Chairman Pujo as "collateral" to the main scope of the inquiry, Samuel Untermyer, special counsel for the committee, developed through Mr. Shrer testimony to the effect that the destiny of practically every financial institution in New York was potentially at the mercy of the "mere whim, determination or order" of the five men who composed the "New York Clearing House Committee." Mr. Untermyer referred to the regulations of the association conferring this power as "monstrous," and also raised the question as to whether the association did not violate the inter-State commerce laws in the banking operations of its members with out-of-town banks.

The Clearing House Committee, composed of Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank, the largest in the country; James G. Cannon, president of the Fourth National Bank; Walter E. Frew, president of the Corn Exchange Bank; Richard Delafield, president of the National Park Bank, and Otto T. Bannard, president of the New York Trust Company, had full power over the admission to membership, according to the testimony of the witness and the power of suspension.

"Then it rests with these five men as to whether they can keep a competitor out of the association?" inquired Mr. Untermyer.

"Don't you think that is a monstrous regulation for an institution doing an inter-State business?"

"The average banker has a moral status to maintain," replied Mr. Sherer. "He realizes that he can make more money by walking straight than crooked. I have never known honorable men who are able to fulfill the financial requirements for admission to be refused. If the committee took the narrow view of keeping out a competitor, it would react against him. Merchants and business men who are the banks' largest customers would

ALL PROCEEDINGS WILL BE PUBLIC

National Republican Committee Thus Votes at First Session.

CONTESTS NOT YET TAKEN UP

This Will Be the First Work of the Committee Today—No Friction Over Victor Rosewater's Seat As Chairman

Chicago, June 6.—Publicity will govern the Republican National Committee's deliberations upon the contests for seats in the National convention. This was decided without opposition at the opening session of the committee today in accordance with the expressed wishes of President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt.

The public and the newspapers will be represented by the five press associations recognized by admission of their reporters to the floor of the National House of Representatives at Washington. Two men from each such press association will be permitted to be present during all deliberations and decisions of the committee. There will be no executive sessions.

Thus declaring emphatically for publicity in all its proceedings, the committee also elected Victor Rosewater, of Omaha, permanent chairman, and adopted the rules of four years ago which are to govern the hearings preliminary to the National convention, which begins June 18th.

Oponions differ tonight as to the significance of the only vote taken during the meeting which might be construed as a test of strength in the committee as between the Taft and Roosevelt adherents in the committee. That vote of 39 to 13 was on the question of confining the representation of the newspapers to press associations.

The Roosevelt people contended for a complete "removal of the lid" by admitting also at least one representative of "every" newspaper having recognition in the press galleries of Congress. This was urged by Committeeman Kellogg, of Minnesota, as a substitute for the recommendation of Committeeman Hart, of Iowa, but it was defeated, as stated above, and the roll call showed the success of Mr. Hart's motion.

The only other vote of a significant character was on the proposal of Senator Borah, of Idaho, that eight members should be sufficient to order a roll call. This was defeated and the old rule providing for 20 for this purpose was re-enacted.

The Taft adherents did not object to the widest publicity, but argued that the committee did not have facilities for admitting all and urged that while no part of the committee's sessions should be practically executive, stenographic reports should be given to the press. Secretary William Hayward after the meeting declared that there was not in today's session a suggestion from any one that any part of the future proceedings should be kept secret. On the contrary he declared that the commoittee would assist in giving the widest publicity to their work.

A plan to give out daily a stenographic report of the proceedings came up through the adoption of a motion by Committeeman Shackelford, of Alaska, and this will be done.

One subject which was generally expected to cause friction was scarcely mentioned. That was the expected effort to seat the new National committeemen recently chosen by various State primaries and conventions. It was expected to come up especially in the case of R. B. Howell, of Nebraska, who will succeed Victor Rosewater. The latter was elected without opposition to be chairman in place of the late John F. Hill, of Maine, and to serve until the close of the National committee. No contest was taken up, though there had been some talk of beginning their hearing late this afternoon. The convention adjourned at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning when the contests will be taken up in alphabetical order, beginning with Alabama. The old rule, giving 20 minutes to each side in contests over State delegations at large and 15 minutes per side in district contests was readopted without opposition. With 238 contests pending, it is plain that the committee will need every available hour from now until the convention meets at noon on Tuesday, June 18th.

The committee met for its first session soon after 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Coliseum annex. Except for the preliminary organization and adoption of the rules which governed the contests four years ago, the committee transacted little business. The report of the special committee appointed at Washington last December proposing general rules to govern the committee was received, but action was deferred.

On resolution of Harry S. New, of Indiana, the basis of representation in the convention was continued as at present.

The roll call of the committee showed that the proxies of the absent members were held as follows: Senator William E. Borah, Idaho, for George A. Knight, of California, (Senator Borah thus held two votes in the com-

S. D. WARFIELD IN CONTROL OF S.A.L.

PURPOSE OF THE NEW OWNERS

South's Position in Seaboard Affairs Will be Emphasized—Road Will be Improved—Southerners Are Allied.

New York, June 6.—Announcement was made here tonight of the purchase by S. Davies Warfield, president of the Continental Trust Company, of Baltimore, of a large block of stock in the Seaboard Air Line Railway, whereby control of the railroad will pass to Mr. Warfield and a group of financial interests associated with him. The transfer, it is stated, marks the practical retirement of Thomas F. Ryan from the Seaboard.

The sale announced includes 90,000 shares of the preferred and 120,000 shares of common stock of the Seaboard Air Line and was made by the Cumberland Corporation. During the last year Mr. Warfield has acquired large holdings of Seaboard stock, which, with the latest purchase, passes control to the group with which he is associated. In all probability, $37,000,000 of common and $24,000,000 of the preferred stock are outstanding.

According to the announcement made tonight leading financial interests of the States traversed by the Seaboard system are closely identified with Mr. Warfield. Among his New York associates are F. A. Vanderlip, Albert H. Wiggin, Blair & Company, Benjamin Strong, Jr., Charles H. Sabin, Samuel L. Fuller and Robert Walker, former chairman of the railway and of the board of the Rock Island Company.

It is understood that the block of stock taken over will be trusteed for five years, Mr. Warfield acting as chairman of the managers.

Announcement of the sale was made by John B. Dennis, of Blair & Company, who are fiscal agents for the Cumberland Corporation. This company owns the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railway and the Clinchfield coal fields in southwest Virginia.

In a statement regarding the purchase Mr. Warfield explained the purpose of the new owners. He said:

"The Seaboard Air Line Railway is distinctly a Southern property and the South's position in Seaboard affairs will now be emphasized. Its independence as a Southern line should be preserved. The road should be operated as such, and from and in the South. The board of directors should include representative business and financial men from Southern States through which it operates and as the representatives of Southern interests. The financial connections of the railroad are enlarged, insuring the procuring of money for its development on the best terms with resultant benefits to both the territory it serves and to its security holders."

Beginning October 1st, it was announced, the meetings of the directors will be held in Baltimore instead of New York. Regarding possible changes in management, it is stated tonight that the improvement of the road rather than the personnel of its operating staff, has only been considered so far.

S. Davies Warfield's connection with the Seaboard Air Line dates back to its inception, as he was a member of the organizing committee. As chairman of the receivers of the road he took an important part in the rehabilitation of the Seaboard and upon the reorganization he became chairman of the executive committee.

IN BATTLE WITH STRIKERS.

Italian Miner Killed and Negro Wounded at Paint Creek, W. Va.

Roanoke, Va., June 6.—Striking miners at Wacoma, on Paint Creek, W. Va., in the Kanawha coal field, this morning, fired on detectives from ambush, and in the battle which followed an Italian miner was killed and a negro mortally wounded.

The firing began shortly before 7 o'clock, when the detectives were on their way to breakfast. The miners were hidden in a clump of trees on the side of the mountain, and when the detectives passed, the strikers opened fire with rifles. The detectives promptly answered the volley. The battle waged, and the detectives charged the enemy.

Five strikers were captured. The prisoners were taken back to the settlement, a magistrate tried them, and each of them was held for the grand jury under a charge of attempted murder. The prisoners were taken to the jail at Charleston, W. Va.

SYMPATHY FOR THE ALLENS.

Flowers and Delicacies Are Sent to the Jailed Clansmen.

Bristol, Tenn., June 6.—Considerable adverse criticism is heard of people of Wytheville, Va., who are sending flowers and delicacies to members of the Allen gang, in jail there.

The second degree conviction of Claude Swanson Allen is ascribed by many to sentiment turning in favor of the defendants among people who believe the Allens acted from a mistaken sense of their rights.

PLAN TO PRESENT IOWA MAN FIRST

Taft Leaders Will Let Cummins be Nominated Before President.

TAFT TO COME AFTER TEDDY

The President's Friends Claim Alabama is for Him and Will Yield to Iowa—This is Hilles' Plan at Present.

Washington, June 6.—President Taft's name may not be the first to be presented to the Republican National Convention at Chicago, and in fact, Taft leaders still in Washington said tonight that the President's name might not be put before the convention until after Col. Theodore Roosevelt has been put in nomination. It became known that when C. D. Hilles, President Taft's secretary, left for Chicago last night, he carried with him a draft of a tentative plan for the presentation of the President's name to the convention. That plan was declared to be subject to alteration by Taft leaders now in Chicago and, of course, by Mr. Taft himself if he finds it unsuitable before the day when the nominations are made.

According to the plan taken away by Mr. Hilles the name of Senator A. B. Cummins, of Iowa, who has 10 delegates from his own State pledged to him, may be the first given to the convention.

Alabama stands at the head of the list of States on the convention roll. Counting upon the Alabama delegation as certain for Taft, his political advisers suggested that he should yield, not to Ohio, the President's own State, which would put him in nomination, but to Iowa, that might put forward the name of its senior Senator.

Next in the roll of States comes Arizona. The Taft adherents claim Arizona, too, and that State, according to the approved scheme would yield to New York. Although the Taft leaders also claim New York by a large majority, it was their idea that some Roosevelt delegate be permitted to present the name of Col. Roosevelt at this point in the proceedings.

Arkansas, another State claimed by the Taft leaders, under this plan, would then yield to Ohio and the name of the President be put before the convention, probably by Warren G. Harding, former Lieutenant Governor of that State, and one of its delegates at large.

With Cummins, Roosevelt and Taft out of the way, Wisconsin will nominate Senator LaFollette and friends of the President claim that in putting his name before the convention his sponsor can be relied upon to leave with the convention just before a vote a denunciation of Col. Roosevelt.

Although this was said to be the plan most favored at present, others have been considered. One was for the presentation of Mr. Taft's name by Mr. Harding before other candidates. Another was that Mr. Taft might be suggested to the convention by New York. This appealed to some of the President's friends, particularly because it is Mr. Roosevelt's home State. One reason advanced against the giving of the honor to Ohio was that the State has more Roosevelt than Taft delegates.

MINORITY REPORT DISAPPEARED.

Committee Members Couldn't Find Dalzell, Who Had It.

Washington, June 6.—Consternation seized the minority members of the House Ways and Means Committee today when just before adjournment of the House it was discovered that the minority report on one Democratic cotton tariff revision bill had disappeared. This was the last day under the rules on which the dissenting report could be filed. Representative Payne, of New York, ranking member of the committee, begged the House to be magnanimous and extend the time one more day.

"Mr. Dalzell has the report," he said pleadingly, "and he has disappeared. We have been unable to find him."

Representatives Payne and Longworth, of Ohio, had been making a feverish search for the Pennsylvania member throughout the Capitol and the House office building, but in vain. They faced the possibility of having the cotton measure go before the country apparently on a unanimous committee report. The House, however, was magnanimous and the searchers were given another day of grace in which to run down the missing Mr. Dalzell.

POUR LIQUOR IN STREET

W. C. T. U. Buys Up Large Quantity Sold by Sheriff at Auction

Martinsburg, W. Va., June 6.—Several hundred gallons of beer and whiskey were poured into the public square here last night by members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The intoxicants, confiscated by county authorities at various times, were sold during the day at public auction by the sheriff.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union secured the lot for $240 and then dumped it into the street. As the women poured the liquor away constables stood guard.

LISBON NOBLE WANTED.

Negro Charged With Theft of $139.30 From Ice Company.

Lisbon Noble, colored, is wanted by the police on a charge of the larceny of $139.30 from the Independent Ice Company. The matter was reported to police Wednesday, but in keeping with the antiquated and semi-occasionally effective methods of the force, was suppressed in the fond delusion that an arrest could be made before the theft was generally known.

Noble, it is said, was given a package containing $139.30 Tuesday afternoon at the plant of the Independent Ice Company to carry to the office of the Central Ice Company. He came into the office of the Central Company during the afternoon, but the officials there did not know at the time that he had been given the money. Later in the afternoon they learned that the money had been sent by the negro, but even then they did not become uneasy. When the negro did not show up by night a search was instituted, and the negro traced up until 2 o'clock. From that time no trace of him could be found and the matter was reported to the police department next morning.

Mr. H. B. Peschau, manager of the Central Ice Company, stated last night that Noble had been in the employ of the company for several years and that on many former occasions he had been entrusted with large sums of money to carry from one plant to another. He had always been trustworthy before, and was considered strictly honest.

DEPARTMENT IS SATISFIED

Will Send No More Ships to Cuban Waters At Present

Washington, June 6.—For the present at least, the four battleships comprising the fourth division of the Atlantic fleet which are due to arrive in Guantanamo Bay tomorrow, with the gunboat Paducah, lying off Daquiri, will constitute all of the United States naval force to be assembled in Cuban waters.

The State Department today signified its satisfaction with that part of the naval programme and if there should be any change involving the sending of more ships to Cuba it must follow developments in the situation not now expected.

Secretary Knox had a long talk with Representative Sulzer, chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, late today and while they discussed many matters of importance now pending before Congress especial attention was devoted to the Cuban and Mexican situations.

The secretary told Mr. Sulzer that the reports which he had given to the press regarding the Cuban insurrection embodied practically all of the information which the department possessed. He said further that no one at this moment could accurately forecast the outcome of the insurrection and it was felt that some time must elapse before its exact strength could be developed and an estimate be reached of the government's ability to control it.

Th present intention is to keep the third division of the fleet at Key West so that there may be an adequate force within five hours sail of Havana to deal promptly with any outbreak that might exceed the power of President Gomez's troops and police to curb.

COTTON WORM IN S. C.

Farmers Are Taking Steps to Exterminate the Pest.

Rock Hill, S. C., June 6.—The cotton caterpillar, a little worm that wrought havoc with the cotton plant late last Fall, has made its appearance in this county and the farmers are already taking steps to exterminate the pest. The agricultural department at Clemson College has been asked to assist in this work and the farmers will no doubt begin at once to sprinkle arsenate of lead on the infested plants. It is unusual for the pest to appear so early and it could devour the entire plant in short time once the worms begin to accumulate in numbers.

Brussels, June 6.—One man was killed and 20 others were seriously wounded at Musson, a commune in Luxemburg, today during a fight between clericals and anti-clericals. Most of the inhabitants participated in the encounter, which lasted two hours. The Socialist leaders seem to have lost control of the men in a part of the Walloon provinces where the workmen declare that they wish to avenge their comrades who were killed at Liege.

The weather was fine until late in the afternoon when many of the players had to finish their matches in a drenching rain.

CITIZENS CALLED TO ARMS

Gravity of Cuban Situation Emphasized by Gomez's Order

Havana, Cuba, June 6.—The gravity of the situation in Cuba was emphasized by the issuance late tonight by President Gomez of a proclamation to the Cuban people urging them to arm and organize in the face of the National peril. The President expresses the hope that Congress tomorrow will vote a credit to cover the extraordinary military preparations—this in addition to the $1,000,000 already voted.

In his proclamation President Gomez calls upon the Cuban people to rally to the support of the government and take up arms in the cause of civilization and their nationality against the onslaughts of barbarous hordes.

Congress will meet tomorrow and it is confidently expected it will vote additional credits for military operations.

BETTER RATES TO SOUTHEAST

On Packing House Products and Fresh Meats Are Ordered.

Washington, June 4.—The interstate commerce commission today ruled that the rates on packing house products and fresh meats from Kansas City and Wichita should not exceed by more than 2 1-2c. a hundred pounds the rates from Oklahoma City to the destinations in Georgia, Alabama, Florida and other points in the southeastern territory, and that the roads should establish a peddler-car service for the distribution of packing house products and fresh meats in the Southern territory, the rates for which not exceed 130 per cent of the carload rates on packing house products and 150 per cent of the carload rates on fresh meats.

Washington, June 6.—For the first time in four centuries degrees were conferred upon women by a pontifical university when the Catholic University of America yesterday awarded the baccalaureate of arts to 18 sisters. Monsignor Thomas J. Sheehan, rector of the university, remarked that a feature of the unusual event was the fact that the recipients surpassed all previous marks of scholastic attainment for a like degree given women by the university.

never stand for unjust discrimination."

"I am not speaking of motives," pursued the attorney, "but of the unbridled and unlicensed power of these men. Don't you think this power should be subject to judicial review and control?"

Mr. Sherer then explained that the Clearing House Association was a voluntary institution, similar to a private club and that no court would hold that a voluntary institution could be compelled to accept as a member any one who could not comply with its regulations.

"But you know that this great power exists; should it not be judicially controlled?"

"I agree with you," finally conceded Mr. Sherer. "Where there is a wrong it should be corrected."

"And this mere whim, determination or order, what ever you are to call it, to stop clearing for non-member banks. Don't you think that is too a great power without judicial review?"

The witness again gave an affirmative answer, but asserted that in the exercises of the power "it is not so bad as it looks," citing a recent instance where the committee's power was exercised to prevent an intsitution whose officers were "not of good character" from obtaining membership by buying out and merging with a clearing house bank.

Good character often depends upon which group of banks you belong to, doesn't it?" queried Mr. Untermyer.

"Oh, I don't admit that," said the witness.

Mr. Untermyer raised the question of the violation of the inter-State commerce law when he brought out from the witness that by taxing the collection of checks on out-of-town banks, the New York clearing house institutions "levied on the country a tribute" of over $48,000,000 annually. This tax, which was first imposed by the clearing house in 1899, amounts to one quarter of one per cent or one-tenth of one per cent, according to the territory from which the check originated, Mr. Sherer said, and any bank charging a less amount is subject, according to the rules to expulsion after a second offense.

"Dont' you realize that the collection of out-of-town checks in this manner is in restaint of trade," asked Mr. Untermyer, after pointing out that it was impossible for the clearing house banks to compete with each other for a customer's accounts by offering for example to collect their checks for nothing.

Mr. Sherer admitted that the clearing house was "an important factor in inter-State commerce, but again pointed out that it was a purely voluntary organization and that a bank not caring to pay the tax imposed, he said, to cover the cost of collection, could withdraw. After Mr. Untermyer had read into the record evidence that the cost of collecting checks in Boston was only seven cents on $1,000, compared with the charge in New York of from $1 to $1.50 per $1,000, he remarked.

"Banks have been obliged to close up because their clearing house privilege has been withdrawn haven't they?"

"Yes," said Mr. Sherer.

"Just a rumor that it is to be expelled will cause a run on the bank, won't it?"

"That is liable to be true."

"Well, then, the idea of a bank allowing itself to be expelled on account of the collection rule, is inconceivable,"' commented the attorney.

"I think that if I were president of a bank and felt that I was being unjustly used I could announce that fact and withdraw any danger to my institution," said the witness. He admitted the imposition of the collection tax was not properly a function of a clearing house association.

SECURED SECRET INFORMATION.

Appropriation for Panama Canal Was Cut Many Millions by Committee.

Washington, June 6.—Charges that the appropriation for the Panama canal had been cut by $16,700,000 on "secret" information obtained by the Appropriations Committee and not divulged to the House, precipitated a sharp clash in debate today when discussion of the sundry civil bill was resumed. Members of the committee admitted that the charge was true, but defended their action with the explanation that the information was taken at an informal gathering of members of the committee.

"Such action is unfair," said Minority Leader Mann. "All testimony on which the action of the committee was based should appear in the printed record."

of the committee, Page, of North Carolina, and Sherley, of Kentucky, defended the committee. The so-called "secret" testimony, they said, consisted of an informal chat with Col. Goethals, chief engineer of the canal. Former Speaker Cannon was present during part of the conversation, Mr. Cannon insisting that nothing was said during his presence that could account for the sharp reductions made.

Explaining the reasons for the cut Mr. Page said that within the past six months many canal employes had been discharged and that the force retained had developed an efficiency "beyond the expectations of even the most sanguine."

A sharp attack was made on the failure of the committee to provide for the continuance of the Tariff Board. Representative Malby, of New York, Republican, charged the Democrats with seeking to close all avenues of information on tariff questions.

AFFAIRS AT GREENSBORO

Death of Mrs. Gove—T. J. Gold to Practice at High Point—Armours to Establish Plant at Greensboro—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., June 6.—The remains of Mrs. Maria Pearce Gove, whose death occurred here yesterday, were taken to New Hampshire this afternoon on train No. 36, for burial. Mrs. Gove was the mother of Dr. Anna Gove, for the past several years resident physician at the State Normal College, and was 78 years of age. She was a native of Vermont and came to Greensboro to make her home in 1904.

It is learned here that Mr. T. J. Gold, who was recently nominated by the Democrats of Guilford for the lower house of the General Assembly, has formed a partnership with Mr. W. R. Edmonds, of Rowland, and that under the firm name of Gold & Edmonds they will practice law at High Point.

The deal for the location here of a fertilizer plant by the Armour Packing Company, of Chicago, has been closed and announcement is made that work will commence at once on the erection of the buildings. The plant will be located on the line of the C. F. & Y. V., just outside the city limits and will cost approximately $250,000. A large number of men will be employed during the construction of the buildings and when complete the company will employ regularly at least 300 workmen.

The criminal cases set for trial at the present term of United States District Court have about been disposed of and this afternoon the civil calendar was called. The majority of cases set for trial were of minor importance.

VISITING SAILORS ENTERTAINED

Germans Are Feasted at Norfolk Y. M. C. A.—American Jackies Present

Norfolk, Va., June 6.—Five hundred German and American sailors from the international fleet in the roads arrived in Norfolk shortly before 6 o'clock this evening and landing from the steamer Luray at the Southern Railroad wharf, were met by the committee from the Norfolk Conventions' Association and headed by a band from the German flagship Moltke and the battleship Kansas, marched to the Naval Y. M. C. A., where the visiting sailors enjoyed the feast prepared for them in the gymnasium.

The visitors were welcomed by George Lanz, a German giant who stands seven feet in his stocking feet.

During the banquet the bands from the Moltke and Kansas played "the Star Spangled Banner," "Dixie," "The Watch on The Rhine," and "America." Each piece was cheered time after time. Miss C. M. Best, of Norfolk, sang, "The Watch On the Rhine," and every man in the banquet hall arose en masse and cheered the singer.

This was repeated a few minutes later when Miss Grace Wilson, also of Norfolk, sang "Dixie."

Toasts were drank to the President and Emperor of Germany.

At the conclusion of the banquet the following cablegram was sent to the Emperor of Germany:

"To His Imperial Majesty, the Kaiser, "Berlin, Germany.

"The city of Norfolk having had the honor of entertaining 500 of the men of Your Majesty's navy extends you congratulations on its magnificent personnel.

(Signed) "HARVEY M. DICKSON, "Chairman of Committee."

ROSEBORO HAPPENINGS.

Negroes Wanted—Seven Candidates for Sheriff—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Roseboro, N. C., June 6.—Constable Royal was in town today in search of George Cromartie and Corena Howard, colored, under charge for lewdly and lasciviously associating together. The defendants have been tried before on the same charge and acquitted.

It begins to look like all of Sampson's best citizens will be candidates for sheriff. There being about ten already in the race.

Edwin L. Gavin, Esq., attended the Sunday School rally at Poplar Grove last Sunday and delivered an address for the occasion.

The building committee of the Roseboro Baptist church is making strenuous preparations to begin the excavation work today. The church will be built of brick and will cost $6,000 or $7,000 when completed, and if carried out according to the plans and specifications will be a beautiful structure, and will be a credit to the town and the Baptists of the South River Association.

Roseboro has made wonderful progress during the past year or two, and is one of the best towns on the railroad from Wilmington to Fayetteville.

Roosevelt and Wilson make about all the fuss we hear in politics, with the exception of the many candidates for sheriff.

WORKING ON OCEAN SAFETY.

Experts Plan Legislation as Result of Titanic Disaster.

Washington, June 6.—With government naval experts and others the Senate Committee on Commerce today entered into a discussion of legislation proposed as a result of the Titanic disaster. The question of double bottoms for steamers, continuous wireless service, sufficient life saving apparatus to care for all those on board and a score of other details were covered during consideration of several bills introduced in both houses.

Rear Admiral Hutch I. Cone, of the Bureau of Construction of the Navy Department; Commissioner of Navigation Eugene T. Chamberlain, Capt. I. N. Hibbard, of San Francisco, superintendent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, and others, argued for a standard of construction of American ships. Capt. Hibbard pointed out that there was no regulation of the United States that prohibited a ship made of tin from going to sea providing she had the necessary life saving equipment. Rear Admiral Cone urged the necessity of double bottoms by referring to the accident that befell the new battleship Arkansas on her recent trial trip. A general bill is expected to be passed at this session.

CAROLINA HARDWARE MEN

Association of Two States to Meet Next Week—The Exhibits

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Charleston, S. C., June 6.—One of the most interesting of the dozen conventions booked at the Isle of Palms this Summer will be that of the Hardware Association of the Carolinas, for June 11th to June 14th, with headquarters of the retailers at the Hotel Seashore, which opens on Sunday for the season with every room reserved for the delegates.

Manager James Sottile has spent a bit over $85,000 this Spring to equip the Isle of Palms for good service, and especially convention service, and nearly half of this amount has been put into hotel improvements, it being his plan to make the Hotel Seashore a gem of quality. Telephones in every room, new furniture throughout, new table linen, bed linen, silver, a new interior finish of white enamel and mahogany, an enlarged dining room and doubled kitchen capacity combine to make the hostelry ready for the hardware men, and other conventions this year.

A dancing pavilion at the Isle of Palms with 25,000 square feet of floor space, will be used in part for a magnificent exhibit of haddware specialites a newly fitted convention hall is to be thrown open next week, and bathing facilities for 2,400 people at once, with boating, dancing every day from 11 A. M. to 11:30 P. M., and other amusements will help pass the time away.

Friends of the hardware men of the two Carolinas are reading now with keen pleasure the very handsome souvenir programme sent out in advance of the Isle of Palms meeting. A. L. Phipps, of Durham, N. C., is president of the association; M. Bonnoitt, Darling; Otis Green, Asheville, and W. H. Keith, Timmonsville, are vice presidents; T. W. Dixon, of Charlotte, is secretary-treasurer. The convention opens on Tuesday morning, June 11th, but the main body of delegaees, several hundred strong, will come in the Sunday preceding. A splendid business and exhibit programme has been prepared, with full amusements on the side. There will be a half hundred booths of exhibits.

BURIAL OF VICTIM

Perry Stallings Who Was Stabbed to Death—Kinston News

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 6.—The body of young Perry Stallings, who was stabbed to death by Charlie Randolph, a boy of 12 years of age, as the result of an altercation Tuesday night, was taken to Reidsville, N. C., for interment. The father, mother, sister and brother of the lad, who was about 15 years of age, accompanied the remains. The youthful slayer was held under $6,000 bond for his appearance at Superior Court.

While returning to this city from Jones county, at 2 A. M., William Turner, a resident of East Kinston, was trampled by a frightened horse which he was driving and seriously injured. The traces becoming unfastened, Mr. Turner alighted from the vehicle in which he was riding to repair the trouble, and while he was thus engaged the animal stepped into a hole and took fright, breaking three of the man's ribs in his excitement. The accident occurred on a bridge over Neuse river a mile from here. The injured man's companion came to town for medical assistance.

The experimental "county sales day" to be conducted by the local Merchants' Association is to be held Saturday. Much interest has been shown by farmers, in whose interest the scheme was devised, and a large number of out-of-town visitors is expected for the occasion. The sales, which will be under the supervision of officers of the association, will be held on the Court House square in this city. Skilled auctioneers and assistants are to be furnished by the organization free of charge, and no articles will be barred from bartering except regular trade lines of storekeepers.

POTATOES GOING FORWARD.

Yield Good and Prices Very Satisfactory to Growers.

(Mount Olive Tribune.)

Our truckers have been busily engaged with the potato deal since Monday of last week, about 25,000 barrels having gone forward from Mount Olive and Calypso up to this time. The yield has been good and prices have been very satisfactory, the net returns to the growers aggregating around $80,000 so far, with approximately only one-third of the crop marketed.

The prevailing price for the past week has been from $2.75 to $3.25. The early part of last week potatoes sold readily for $3.75 to $4 per barrel. Yesterday the price was $2.50, with a few barrels going at $2.75.

Some trouble is being experienced just now on account of the scarcity of barrels, and but for this the shipments would have been much heavier during the past few days.

However, the factory here and the one at Calypso are working full time and turning out about 2,500 barrels each day, and it is believed the situation from now on will be well taken care of.

INQUIRY NEARS END.

House Committee Has About Completed Everglades Probe.

Washington, June 6.—The House probe into the Department of Agriculture's transactions concerning the Everglades in Florida, together with a swamp land tract at Lake Mattamuskeet, N. C., is nearing an end. The committee on expenditures in that department today heard supplemental testimony by J. O. Wright, the State drainage engineer, of Florida, who was formerly in the government employ. Mr. Wright reiterated his testimony about his securing an option on some of the North Carolina land for W. M. Hayes, the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, but pointed out that none of the officials had in any way participated in any of the commissions which he had drawn on account of land deals. The committee will recall Mr. Hayes.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Dr. John A. Witherspoon Elected President of National Body

Atlantic City, N. J., June 6.—Dr. John A. Witherspoon, of Nashville, Tenn., was today elected president of the American Medical Association; Dr. Philander Harris, of Patterson, N. J., first vice president; John L. Heffron, of Syracuse, N. Y., second vice president, and Dr. H. M. McClannahan, of Omaha, Neb., third vice president.

With the exception of a half dozen sections, which will continue their session tomorrow, the convention practically came to a close tonight.

One of the interesting meetings of the day was that of the section on ophthalmology, where Dr. John A. Donovan, of Butte, Mont., declared that the eyesight of the Nation's marksmen was the defense of the country in time of war. He called on the eye specialists of the country to assist in the work of preventing injury or accident to the eyes of the riflemen in the army, navy and State militia.

The hookworm must shoulder some of the responsibility for many eye troubles, in the opinion of Dr. F. P. Calhoun, of Atlanta.

Typhoid fever is at last being successfully checked through anti-typhoid inoculation in the opinion of experts who appeared today before the section on public health. In a paper read by Dr. Leslie H. Spooner, of Boston, it was shown that the danger to nurses and others who come in direct contact with patients suffering from typhoid has been practically eliminated by the treatment.

Dr. M. L. Ravitch, of Louisville, in the section on dermatology, made a plea for earlier diagnosis of pellagra, as it presents a most serious problem in the Southern States. He favored the Protozoan theory as the most plausible one as regard to origin of the disease, the transmission being through migratory birds.

POLICEMAN EXONERATED.

Coroner's Jury Finds Goldsboro Officer Justified in Killing Negro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., June 6.—The jury empanelled by C. E. Stanley, coroner of Wayne county, to investigate the killing of Ed Hadley by Policeman H. P. Hart in this city Tuesday night, after a full and lengthy investigation yesterday afternoon returned a verdict exonerating Officer Hart. All of the witnesses testified that the negro, Ed Hadley, was a bad and dangerous character, a negro woman and a negro boy testified this negro had said repeatedly in their presence after hearing that the police were looking for him that three policemen and the sheriff of the county combined could not arrest him. Mayor Higgins stated that he issued the warrant and gave it to Officer Cuddington to serve, and that he then directed Officer Hart to accompany Cuddington and assist him in the arrest, and told Hart at the time that he did not think any one officer should attempt to arrest a character of this kind alone and warned the officers of the threats he had heard coming from Hadley. Hart testified that when he attempted to arrest Hadley that the negro ran off from him looking back and reaching for his hip pocket as if for weapon to attack him, that he ordered him to halt a number of times, and then fired, merely to scare him into stopping, and was surprised when he saw that the shot took effect; that he expected him to have a gun and that he would use it from the threats he had made. The verdict of the jury was that the negro came to his death from a pistol shot wound at the hands of H. P. Hart, a regular sworn police officer of the city of Goldsboro, in the discharge of his duty which was justifiable from the evidence produced.

IS RAILROAD LIABLE?

Widow Sues for Running Special to Lynch Husband.

Washington, June 6.—Whether a railroad that carries a mob to a town to lynch a man is liable in damages to victim's widow and children is a unique point to be brought before the Supreme Court of the United States. The case will be presented tomorrow with a request to review.

Mrs. Annie May Rogers and three children sued the Vicksburg, Shreveport & Pacific Railroad Company on charges of having carried a mob by special train from Monoela to Tallulah, La., where Rogers was lynched. He had been charged with murdering a man and was about to be released on the ground that he had been tried once before on the charge. The lower Federal court held that as a matter of law the railroad might be liable.

CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS

Session at Asheville Adjourns—In Richmond In July

Richmond, Va., July 6.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, which has been in session in Asheville, N. C., for several weeks, has adjourned, and will meet in this city July 9th. Deputy Clerk Claude M. Dean, who attended the court at Asheville, has returned to the city. The July term is expected to be a short one, and is not likely to last more than three or four days. Circuit Judges Goff and Pritchard, and District Judge Smith, of South Carolina, probably will be in attendance.

Little Rock, Ark., June 6.—By a vote of 334 to 242 the Arkansas State Democratic convention today refused to embody in its platform an endorsement of the so-called "grandfather clause" as a qualification for suffrage. Eight delegates at large with half a vote each, as well as the district delegates, were instructed for Speaker Clark.

Freckle-Face

New Remedy That Removes Freckles or Costs Nothing.

Here's a chance Miss Freckle-Face, to try a new remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion, the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength, from any first class druggist in the city of Wilmington and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask any first class druggist in the city of Wilmington for the double-strength othine, as this is the only prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Nature's Way Is The Best.

Buried deep in our American forest we find bloodroot, queen's root, mandrake and stone root, golden seal, Oregon grape root and cherrybark. Of these Dr. R. V. Pierce made a pure glyceric extract which has been favorably known for over forty years. He called it "Golden Medical Discovery."

This "Discovery" purifies the blood and tones up the stomach and the entire system in Nature' own way. It's just the tissue builder and tonic you require when recovering from a hard cold, grip, or pneumonia. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to be "out of kilter" at times; in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people experience at this time of the year is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin—you feel "blue."

J. G. KENT, Esq.

"More than a week ago I was suffering with an awful cold in my head, throat, breast, and body," writes MR. JAMES G. KENT, of 710 L. Street, S. E., Washington, D. C. "Some called it La Grippe, some pneumonia. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I tried a bottle and it did me so much good that I feel safe in saying it is the greatest and best medicine that I ever took. My health is much better than it was before using your medicine. It does all you claim for it and is satisfactory."

Friday, June 7, 1912.

Be careful with your record. Don't leave it lying around loose.

An impecunious individual who gets in the swim is soon stranded.

While the waiters are on a strike put your lunch money in a savings bank.

Our idea of a good Democrat is one who will have no grouch after the 25th day of June.

"A fool and his money soon parts," if he is fool enough to pay the present price for beef.

One thing worse than a steam roller is when retribution overtakes a man while he is down and out.

When a man nurses a grievance it develops into a lusty grouch or a full-grown specimen of malice.

Some men seem to prefer to go through life paying heavy tolls as they hasten along the wrong way.

Teddy will soon know how far a bluff can go in the direction from which the steam roller is heading.

Some men are not cowards but they will go clear out of their way to keep from meeting the least of their obligations.

Evidently Senator Root does not look like a man who could be easily knocked through the ropes in a parliamentary scuffle.

One of the Colonel's troubles is not to get enough free tickets for his claquers to get in on the ground floor at the Chicago convention.

The inebriated man who took a walk in the surf at Wrightsville Beach waded into something that has its merits as a cooler for overheated flues.

A man with such insatiate ambition as to be willing to win by ruthlessly and unscrupulously pulling down those in the way of his ambition is a good man to let alone.

All the Democratic Presidential eligibles carried their own States, but the real question is which one of them can carry States which have electoral votes to be captured in November.

"Ponder the value of water," urges the Chester (Pa.) Republican. Well, of course we have to take water into account. How could people do their laundry work if it weren't for water?

Teddy says he will not go to Chicago unless there is an attempt at "strong arm" methods. Even then some fellow might shove out his strong arm and invite the Rough Rider to get up on it and take a ride.

Tom Watson threatens to paw up the earth at Baltimore on or about the 25th day of June, but he will find out that the kind of noise he makes in Georgia will sound like the bellowing of a ticky yearling in Texas.

If the Hon. Tom Felder, of Georgia, doesn't like Governor Blease, of South Carolina, he can go to the Baltimore convention over the transmountain route by way of Chattanooga. Scenery is something to be considered.

It will be ascertained when the Chicago convention acts next Tuesday week, that the Republican party is not afraid to meet the tariff issue in its own way. Its platform will promise tariff revision based upon scientific information concerning the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad. The Republican party will tell the people about the "science" of the thing, but it remains for the people to detect Republican art in fooling the people.

TENNESSEE BERRY MEN.

A Chattanooga letter in the New York Trade Journal and Produce Record, of June 1st, states that the Tennessee strawberry growers, like those of the Wilmington district, have been greatly disappointed in the results of the season. The report says the shipments were daily decreasing on account of lower prices and that in the Chattanooga district indications point to a decidedly bad year for the growers.

The slump in the Northern markets and excessively warm weather, which had a tendency to over-ripen the fruit, is given as the cause of loss to the berry men. It is estimated that farmers in Rhea county alone will lose approximately $300,000 as the result of the low prices offered for Tennessee berries. Hundreds of carloads of berries have been permitted to rot in the fields, prices being so low that it would have meant a loss to have picked, crated and shipped the fruit. We quote this from the Chattanooga report, so North Carolina growers can form their own conclusions about the cause of the woes of the Tennessee growers:

"Not only are growers suffering and losing money as the result of the causes which combine to reduce prices, but the berry picker and his family, who have been imported into this section to care for the crops are also heavy losers. Many are absolutely without means and may have a hard time reaching their homes.

"Dealers over the territory generally say if they can realize enough to meet expenses they will be satisfied, but they doubt seriously their ability to come out without a great loss. Chapman Wasson, one of the largest growers in Rhea county, estimates he has about 50 carloads in fields which he will be unable to move. His loss, figured conservatively, will amount to $50,000 or possibly more. Other extensive growers in Rhea county will have losses as great as Mr. Wasson's.

"It is hard to make an estimate of losses the Chattanooga territory will sustain. This being one of the largest berry sections in the United States there are scores of small growers who cannot hope to see 'daylight' on this year's crop. One large shipper said yesterday that it might, after all, prove beneficial, as doubtless the acreage would be reduced next year, thereby causing a better market.

"Growers generally over the territory are much discouraged and some in the vicinity of Evansville attribute a large part of their losses to local buyers, whom they claim paid them low prices when the Northern markets justified a better price. This accusation was in a degree substantiated when an Evansville shipper, refusing to sell to a local buyer shipped direct to Cincinnati, receiving a good price for his berries.

"It is hardly possible for growers to sell berries on the markets now. They are compelled to place them on consignment with commission merchants in Eastern and Northern markets. The shipping yield is practically done. This year's crop, according to both growers and commission men, has been decidedly unsatisfactory."

The above tells its own tale. Reading between the lines, one can see that the Tennessee growers, like those in North Carolina, had no distributing system for the crop. Evidently the berry business in Tennessee is a big industry like it is here, and it is impossible to have made it a success when large shipments must have been made without any understanding of the supply and demand on the various markets. In the absence of organization, it will be noted that even the "local buyers" were able to fix their own prices and set the pace for the Northern buyers. No doubt while New York and other big markets were being glutted hundreds of smaller cities in the North were absolutely berry hungry. Even Cincinnati was willing to pay good prices, evidently because it had been overlooked in the rush to push shipments into New York.

Thorough organization is the only remedy for such conditions as ...e North Carolina and Tennessee growers have experienced this season. The Star hopes the berry growers and truckers in eastern North Carolina will take time by the forelock and reorganize the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association. A meeting for that purpose is to be held in Wilmington Wednesday, August 21st, and not a community in the berry and trucking region should fail to take the most earnest interest in the reorganization.

SOUTH ATLANTIC PROSPERITY

The South Atlantic portion of the South gets a big boost from Bradstreet's superintendents who are holding their fifth annual convention in Atlanta this week. These superintendents are the reporters of the Southeastern division of the Bradstreet Company's commercial agencies, and no men are in a better position to speak more authoritively and accurately of conditions as they are found than the men whose business it is to keep in touch with them every day in the year.

At their Atlanta convention the Bradstreet men are making reports from the different States of the Southeast, and as they are neither optimists nor pessimists but deal in cold facts, we can get from them a true statement of the commercial, industrial and agricultural conditions as they exist in this garden spot of the South. The Atlanta Journal, in referring editorially to what they have to say of conditions in the South Atlantic country, says:

"It is their special duty to see things as they are, using neither rosy nor yellow glasses. Of particular interest and value, therefore, are the reports which these gentlemen have rendered concerning the individual communities where they are stationed and concerning the section as a whole. The sum of their opinion is that the commercial life of the Southeast is more substantial and more progressive than ever before and that the entire section is pervaded with a prosperity which each State and city shares. From such a group of men such a report is exceptionally significant, because, as we have said, it represents the unglossed and unprejudiced truth."

The Bradstreet superintendents report, without exception, that prosperity reigns in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and Florida..

The reports constitute a chorus of progress in commercial, industrial and agricultural movements in all the communities which each respective superintendent observes. The progress in manufacturing and agriculture is striking, and North Carolina is conspicuous for her achievements during the past year and for the prospects looming ahead. Twelve superintendents make reports, all chronicling the steady development of this portion of the country. Referring to the reports generally, the Journal says:

"What is true of Atlanta and of Georgia is true of the section as a whole. The twelve local superintendents each brings a record of striking achievement on the part of the community he has been observing. Charleston is preparing her wharves for Panama canal business and is building a number of great industrial plants. Birmingham is maintaining its splendid record of industrial development and is forging forward to still greater accomplishments. Mobile is developing its river front and is making ready to increase its South American trade. Tampa's customs receipts have increased 67 per cent within the year, and its internal revenue receipts 42 per cent.

"It is especially interesting to note that all the seaport towns are preparing for the opening of the Panama canal. They are improving their wharves and are planning to enter aggressively into the world commerce which the great canal will place within the reach of the South."

In the matter of commerce Wilmington has made a fine record, and as to the several seaports it is interesting to note that some of them are making special preparations for Panama canal traffic. They are doing the proper thing, and The Star hopes to see the South yet doing the greater portion of the commerce of this country, as it is today furnishing more than fifty per cent of the export commodities of the United States.

Wilmington's water terminal facilities have been marvelously improved, but the improvements are of a private and corporate nature. We hope to add to them publicly controlled and owned piers and warehouses, so the port can secure the fullest benefits from open competition in water rates. The business men of Wilmington should not overlook the fact that if the most potential advantages of the port are to be secured we must have public terminals to free the port from arbitrary rates fixed by private and corporate owners of harbor terminals.

ROUND ONE FOR TAFT.

The real battle between Roosevelt and Taft begins today at Chicago when the National Republican committee meets to begin hearing the contests filed by Roosevelt's and Taft's campaign directors. Director McKinley is on hand representing Taft, and Senator Dixon, director for Roosevelt, is there to take care of the Rough Rider's interest.

There was something a little ominous for the Colonel in yesterday's dispatches, the indications being that Roosevelt is up against a losing fight so far as getting control of the committee is concerned, as well as his protest involving the appointment of the temporary chairman of the convention which assembles next Tuesday week.

When Senator Dixon arrived in Chicago he delivered Roosevelt's ultimatum to the effect that Senator Root must not be appointed temporary chairman of the National convention.

The gauge of battle was promptly accepted by the Taft men and they met the altimatum with defiance. They not only gave it out that Senator Root will be honored with the temporary chairmanship, but in accordance with Taft's wishes, he will be made permanent chairman of the convention. If that means anything, it indicates that the Taft men are on the job, confident in the fact that they have a majority of the committee and will organize and control the convention.

Thus, the initial fight will be over Root as temporary chairman, and it might be observed that the air of confidence displayed by the Taft men presages a losing fight for Teddy to begin with. If the convention finally is turned over to him, it will be because the Taft men will organize it and turn it over to him. That they will do that is not at all likely. So far as round one goes, it seems to be Taft's.

Some times 'one look" is sufficient to make a man understand that an explanation is in order before he is permitted to make himself at home.

We must judge a man in public life by his aggregate of achievements and not by a few of his mistakes and failures. If a man has done well most of the time little account is taken of the few instances when he may have failed to meet our views. No man in public life can be expected to do things that will meet with unanimous concurrence.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Miss Jessie Holliday says the ideal husband does not smoke, drink or eat meat. Maybe the chump sucks eggs.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

"Woodrow Wilson ought to satisfy all classes of Democrats," says the New Orleans States. He has satisfied the academic classes, but a good many of the law class are against him.—Columbia State.

Governor Aycock has gone to his reward, and is beyond praise or blame. The last speech he wrote contained his creed. It fixes his convictions, and by that he will be judged. Let the campaign for Senatorship be urged by the candidates upon the issues, without dragging the name or the views of the beloved Aycock into the discussion.—Raleigh News and Observer.

John C. C. Mayo, of Kentucky, who has been selected as Democratic National committeeman to succeed Urey Woodson, is known as one of the richest men in the State. He is several times a millionaire, and, being a Kentuckian, is fond of fast horses and a pack of good dogs. Mayo made his money in the coal lands of the Kentucky mountains. He went into the mountains a poor school teacher 25 years ago, and made a shrewd investment in real estate. The estimate of his wealth at present runs as high as $25,000,000. There are said to be now 12 millionaires on the Democratic National Committee.—Savannah News.

What ex-Governor Aycock would have done had he been Senator or Governor has nothing to do with the Senatorial campaign. He distinctly said that had he been Governor he would not have done some things that Governor Kitchin did and that had he been Senator he would not have done some things Senator Simmons did. The people are getting tired of this dragging of a beloved man's memory into the Senatorial campaign. Let the gentlemen make the campaign on their own records. Governor Aycock is not the issue.—Raleigh Times.

Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, who was minister to Spain at the time of the breaking out of the Spanish-American war, and who has been a wheel-horse of the Republican party for upwards of fifty years, sailed for Europe a day or two ago. As he went aboard the ship at New York he said, in the course of an interview, "In my opinion the Democratic party never had such bright prospects of electing a President as it has today." When a leading Republican politician of 50 years' of activity says anything like that it means something.—Savannah News.

Most States send their Governor and both United States Senators to the National conventions. As a rule North Carolina has not followed that course, though two years ago both Senators Simmons and Overman were delegates to the Denver convention. Never did Vance or Ransom or Jarvis go as a delegate while in office. The news from Washington is that neither of the Senators wish to be elected as delegates, and it is known the Governor doesn't desire his name presented. Discussing the attitude of our Senators, the Greensboro Record says: "Senator Simmons will not say whom he favors for President. Senator Overman is inclined towards Wilson, but is making no noise about it. On account of Congress being in session and likely to remain in session until after the National convention, neither of the North Carolina Senators will attend. It's a mighty good idea for a man holding a job to keep away from all entangling alliances."—Raleigh News and Observer.

TO BOOM GOV. WILSON.

Trainloads of Jersey Democrats Going to Convention.

(Special to Baltimore Sun.)

Trenton, N. J., June 5.—James E. Martine, the effervescent representative of New Jersey in the United States Senate, threw a $200 check in the Wilson ring today, and in a few seconds every one of the 24 Wilson delegates from New Jersey was clamoring to do the same thing, so infectious was Martine's enthusiasm for the Governor.

Sheriff "Pete" Wedin, of Hudson, was the only one permitted to follow Senator Martine's example, however, his $200 check being forthcoming a minute or two after the junior Senator's display of wealth. A resolution was passed, however, allowing the other delegates to give up $100 and the alternates $50 for the propagation of the Wilson cause at Baltimore.

The 24 delegates met here today to select officers for the Baltimore convention.

Robert S. Hudspeth was re-elected to the National committee, unanimously, and former Judge John W. Westcott, of Camden, was chosen as leader of the delegation, with the understanding that he is to be the man who will place Governor Wilson in nomination. It was his speech, on taking the chair, that brought forth the show of wealth from Senator Martine and the rest of the delegates. He told the delegates that it would take some money to boom the Governor at Baltimore, and, led by Senator Martin, they at once went down in their jeans for it.

The Hudson county delegates are planning to take a couple of trainloads of the unterrified Democrats to Baltimore to shout for Wilson. Just where they are going to sleep hasn't bothered any of the projectors of the party, but it is said to be their intention to take them to Baltimore in the morning, and after they have paraded through Baltimore, shouting Wilson's praise, to send them back to New Jersey at nightfall.

SAVE HER FROM DEATH CHAIR

Massachusetts Council Commutes Sentence of Mrs. Cusumano

Boston, Mass., June 5—The sentence of Mrs. Lena Cusumano, of Hull, condemned to die this week for the murder of her husband, Frank, was commuted to one of life imprisonment by the executive council today.

An affidavit made by Mrs. Cusumano in the Charlestown prison and witnessed by Warden Bridges, District Attorney Clarence J. Barker, and William J. Coughlin, counsel for the woman, was presented to the council when it resumed consideration of the petition for commutation today. The woman declared that Enrico Masciolo killed her husband without her knowledge; that after the murder he threatened her life, and took what money she had and declared himself the head of her home.

In the affidavit Mrs. Cusumano said: "I did not hire any one to hurt or kill, and I had nothing to do with the killing of my husband, Frank Cusumano."

Mascioli, convicted jointly with Mrs. Cusumano, must die in the electric chair, as the council refused to commute the death sentence last week.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Man Shoots Cemetery Superintendent and Kills Himself.

Hagerstown, Md., June 6.—Chas. W. Adams, of Sharpsburg, superintendent of the National cemetery, Antietam battlefield, was shot and killed on the avenue leading from Sharpsburg to Burnside Bridge today by Charles W. Benner, a resident of Sharpsburg. Benner then went to his home and committed suicide.

The cause of the shooting is said to have been a grudge Benner held against his victim because of testimony reflecting on Benner's character which Adams gave in court a few years ago. Adams was 70 years old. He was a door keeper of the House of Representatives during the 51st Congress and was the Republican leader of Washington county, Maryland. Benner was 55 years of age.

ANOTHER APARTMENT HOUSE

Dr. J. W. Powell Purchases Kelly Property at Third and Market Streets—Work Will Be Started in the Fall

For the purpose of erecting thereon a modern six-story fire-proof apartment house, Dr. J. W. Powell has purchased from Mr. F. J. Gooding the Kelly property at northwest corner of Third and Market streets, for a consideration of something over $18,000. The deal was closed yesterday morning through the real estate agency of J. G. Wright & Son.

The property is located just across the street from the Colonial Inn fronting 50 feet on Market street and extending back 120 feet on Third street. At present there is a three-story brick building on the property but this will be torn down as soon as the lease on it expires. It is an elegant site and is in a neighborhood that is already the location of a number of handsome buildings. Several handsome churches are within a radius of a few blocks and the Carolina Apartment house is only two blocks to the east. The new Y. M. C. building, work upon which is to be started in the near future, will be located just a few doors to the east, on the eastern side of the Colonial Inn.

Dr. Powell stated yesterday that the plans for the building have not as yet been perfected, but that they would be drawn immediately, and that work upon the building would be started as soon as the present lease on the property expires, which will be about October 1st. He stated that the building would be at least six stories, with basement, and would be constructed of granite brick, absolutely fire-proof and modern in every particular. It will be lighted with electric lights and gas and will contain from 25 to 30 modern, roomy apartments.

It is understood that Dr. Powell will have K. C. Sidbury, Esq., of the local bar, associated with him in the erection of the building, but he purchased the property by himself.

DECIDE ON LARGER PLANT.

Cold Storage of Independent Ice Co., Will be Four Stories.

At a meeting of the building committee, recently named by the Independent Ice Company to have in charge the construction of its modern cold storage plant of large capacity at Second and Campbell streets, held yesterday afternoon with Architect Jos. F. Leitner, it was decided to make the storage four stories instead of three as originally planned, thus adding materially to the size and cost of the storage and ensuring for Wilmington one of the finest plants of its kind in the South.

The building committee is composed of Messrs. Wm. E. Springer, W. E. Perdew and L. H. Simmons. The construction will be of reinforced concrete throughout and it will have a capacity of 30,000 packages. One department alone will take care of five car loads of fresh meats, which will be handled immediately from the railroad yards into the plant on large power cranes. Still another department will be devoted to carrying stock frozen and this is especially designed for handling fish in large quantities. Temperatures will be carried at five degrees above zero at all times and this feature alone is expected to be quite a benefit to Wilmington in the handling of fish, etc. All told, the storage will have a capacity of 1o0,000 cubic feet.

Architect Leitner will leave at once for Charlotte and points in Virginia where some of the best plants of the kind will be inspected and later he will continue his trip to Washington, meeting in Richmond, Va., Mr. L. H. Simmons, general manager of the company's ice properties, and a member of the committee. They will inspect a number of plants in Washington with a view of getting from each the very best ideas of construction and refrigeration.

Immediately upon his return Mr. Leitner expects to have the plans under way and it is expected that bids will be called for within ten days. The plant is promised in four months and will be ready for the late Summer and Fall business, which is always large.

The company is delighted with the prospects for business for the new plant, which will, without a doubt, prove a success from the very start.

INTEREST IN CONTEST.

Many Children Actively Engaged in Gathering Trash All Over City.

Much interest is being manifested in the trash gathering contest for which the city health department is offering a prize in each of the five wards of the city. No person living between Red Cross and Church and Seventh street and the river, or on Princess and Market, between Ninth street and the river, is allowed to compete, but all outside of these districts, both white and colored, may enter the competition. On Tuesday, June 11th, prizes of $5 in gold will be awarded the persons collecting the largest pile of trash in each of the five wards of the city. Trash may be collected from any part of the city, except the regular city trash dumps.

These prizes are made possible by the gift of $100 to the health department from Mr. D. L. Gore, and later in the season, on July 9th, five more prizes of $5 each will be awarded for the largest pile of trash in each of the city wards. Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, superintendent of health, is confident that the contest will be the means of doing much toward cleaning up the city and destroying possible breeding places for flies and mosquitoes. The health officers have reported that many children have actively engaged in the contest.

MAY MOVE CAR TRACKS

Usual Report That Car Line May Run Down Market Street

Following the recurrence of a rumor that finds circulation every few months that the Tidewater Power Company contemplates the removal of its tracks from Princess street to Market street, just one block south, a petition is said to be out on Princess street for signatures of the business men protesting against the removal of the car line and urging Council not to grant a franchise for the use of Market street by the transportation company. It was reported yesterday that every business man on Princess street signed the petition save one who said that already too many people pass his place of business every day.

It was reported yesterday that the Tidewater Power Company might ask for the franchise at the next regular meeting of Council. Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Company, was asked over the telephone last night about the report. He replied that he was not in a position to make any statement as to the plans of the company with reference to the matter. It is known that there would be opposition of the Council to the proposed removal of the tracks from Princess to Market street and none of the Councilmen are known to favor the proposition.

LOCAL COLONY INSTITUTED

First Swarm of Order of Bees Last Night—Officers Elected

A local colony of the Order of Bees, Inc., was instituted last night at a meeting in the old Odd Fellows' hall with a membership of about 150, which the officers hope to increase to 1,000 during the next 90 days. Pearce, State organizer, who has been here for some time working up the colony, and Mr. Roy B. Wagner, Supreme Organizer, instituted the colony. Dr. John Thomas presided last night.

Officers were elected for the first term, as follows: King Bee, Clarence Montgomery; Royal Bee, R. L. Clemmons; Noble Bee, E. Roscoe Hall; Drone Bees, G. P. Holden and C. A. Montgomery; Hive Watchman, A. W. Clemmons and A. M. Pate; Colony Watchmen, D. T. Sandlin and S. E. Eagles; Past King Bee, Dr. John Thames; Recording Bee, Mr. Gurganus; Financial Bee, J. T. Burke. The colony will meet twice a month on Thursday nights.

$5,000 AWARDED PLAINTIFF

Mrs. Susan M. Gregg Given Verdict for This Amount Against City and Mr. Jas. F. Woolvin for Death of Husband.

Mrs. Susan M. Gregg was last night awarded $5,000 damages by a Superior Court jury against the City of Wilmington and Mr. Jas. F. Woolvin for the death of her husband, who was killed a few years ago by a pile of brick falling upon him in front of a building being erected on Princess street by Mr. Woolvin. The jury was out about six hours, getting the case shortly before 5 o'clock and returning a verdict at 10:50 P. M. The case has engaged the attention of Superior Court for several days and several of the leading members of the bar appeared on one side or the other.

This was the second trial and the second time a verdict was returned in favor of the plaintiff. The verdict at the first trial was for $7,000. The case was appealed to Supreme Court and a new trial was granted. The issues submitted to the jury yesterday and the answers follow:

"Was the plaintiff's intestate killed by the negligence of the city of Wilmington?" Answer, "Yes."

"Was the plaintiff's intestate guilty of contributory negligence" Answer, "No."

"Was B. H. Stephens, an independent contractor in respect to that work?" Answer, "No."

"Was Jas. F. Woolvin guilty of negligence?" Answer, "Yes."

"What damages, if any, is plaintiff entitled to recover?" Answer, "$5,000."

The plaintiff was represented by Rountree & Carr and John D. Bellamy & Son, while City Attorney Herbert McClammy and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan appeared for the city and A. G. Ricaud and Robt. Ruark, Esqs., appeared for Mr. Woolvin.

There are only two days remaining of the present term of court and it is not likely that any more important acses will be taken up.

PORT PARAGRAPHS.

Steamer Celia Foated Wednesday Night—Steamer Norton Arrives.

The British steamer Celia, which ran aground near quarantine last Friday, was floated at high water Wednesday night and proceeded up the river yesterday morning to the Atlantic Coast Line terminals, where she is discharging cargo of nitrate of soda. Several of the harbor tugs assisted in pulling the big tramp into the channel.

The British steamer Norton, Capt. Frankland, arrived yesterday from Villa Real with cargo of sulphur ore for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company.

Runaway Last Evening.

While out driving with her brother last evening about 7 o'clock, Mrs. Bryant, who lives at 419 Campbell street, was injured slightly when the horse became frightened and ran away. Both occupants of the buggy were thrown out at corner of Third and Grace streets, Mrs. Bryant sustaining a sprained ankle and a bruised elbow. Her brother received a cut about two inches in length over the left eye. The horse ran down Third street, striking a wagon at Princess and tearing one of the wheels off the buggy, continued on to Market and down Market to Front, where it was stopped. Mrs. Bryant was attended by Dr. C. D. Bell. Her injuries are not serious.

New Automobile Law

Copies of the new automobile law, adopted by the City Council May 29th, and which becomes effective on and after June 10th, have been printed and were yesterday distributed by Special Officer N. J. Williams. The notice is signed by Mayor Joseph D. Smith. The new ordinance requires that all operators of automobiles must have a permit from the city clerk and treasurer. For this he pays $1. The applicant must satisfy the city clerk and treasurer that he is qualified to be an automobile driver before the permit can be issued. Forms for applications for permits may be obtained from the city clerk and treasurer.

Working Out the Details

Councilman Tiencken, who is acting Mayor, stated yesterday that the details of the proposition of the Suburban Development Company to give the city a park in the southern part of the city had practically been agreed upon by members of Council and representatives of the developing company. The city is to get about 22 acres of land, divided into two tracts, in the southern part of the city, for park purposes, in return for improving Fourth street from Wright to Greenfield, which will cost about $18,000. The agreement between the city and the company will probably be signed within a few days.

Two Large Congregations

One of the largest congregations that has yet attended a morning service at Fifth Street Methodist church revival heard a strong and impressive sermon by Rev. Raymond Browning yesterday morning, and another large congregation was present last night, when Mr. Browning preached on Sampson. His sermon was a thoughtful and persuasive one and was heard with deep interest by all in the congregation. Services will be held again this morning at 9:30 o'clock and tonight at 8. A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

THOMAS-CLARK NUPTIALS CELEBRATED LAST EVENING

A charmingly pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at 6 o'clock at St. James' Episcopal church when Miss Mary Sumner Clark, the charming and attractive daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Haywood Clark, became the bride of Mr. George Gillett Thomas, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Thomas. Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, the rector, performed the ceremony in accordance with the beautiful and impressive ritual of the Episcopal Church.

The church had been simply but beautifully decorated for the occasion with lighted candles, the decorations being made by the Sanctuary Guild, of which the bride was a member. The color scheme for the wedding was yellow and white.

Long before the hour for the ceremony the church was filled with a large gathering of friends and relatives, both from Wilmington and other points. The transept was reserved for the Girls Friendly Society, of which the bride has been an active member. Prof. Geo. L. Johnson presided at the organ and before the ceremony rendered several selections, including the "Cradle Song," Gounod's "Serenade," and an andante, Elgar."

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of "The Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin. First came the ribbon children, Master Dick Battle, of Raleigh, and little Miss Mary Clark Emerson, nephew and niece of the bride, followed by the bridesmaids and groomsmen, as follows: Miss Anna Clark, of Scotland Neck, with Miss Sadie Thomas, of Charlotte; Mr. Spencer Nichols, of Wilmington, with Mr. George Thomas, of Charlotte; Miss Janie Peters, of Portsmouth, with Miss Edith Clark, of Wilmington; Mr. Platt Davis with Mr. Robert Calder; Miss Julia Parsley with Miss Blanche Morton; Mr. Frank Holloway with Mr. Bennett Perry, of Henderson.

Next came the dame of honor, Mrs. Horace Emerson, Jr., and the maid of honor, Miss Helen Clark, both sisters of the bride. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Capt. Haywood Clark, and was met at the altar by the groom, entering from the vestry with his best man, Dr. Pride J. Thomas, his brother.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were attired in white and yellow and carried white and yellow daisies. The dame of honor was in white and carried white daisies, and the maid of honor wore yellow and carried yellow daisies.

Following the ceremony the bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelsshon's "Wedding March," as a recesional, and repaired to the home of the bride's parents, No. 621 Dock street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left on the 7 o'clock train for points of interest in the North, where they will spend their bridal tour. On their return in about 10 days they will be at home to their friends at No. 515 Orange street.

Mr. Thomas is a well-known and popular young man, being connected with the engineering department of the Atlantic Coast Line. His bride is a charming and talented young woman. Both are social favorites in Wilmington, as well as throughout the State.

In addition to the bridesmaids and groomsmen from other points, the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. R. H. Davis, of Louisburg; Mr. William Jones, North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bourne, of Tarboro; Miss Beba Bridgers, of Tarboro, and Mr. Ruffin Smith, of Charlotte.

LOST WATCH AND CHAIN

Negroes Believed to Have Stolen Jewelry from Coat

It has been reported to the police department that Mr. Benjamin Ballard had a watch and chain and scarf pin stolen from him by negroes while engaged in superintending the unloading of some cross-ties and poles on the wharf at Ann and Water streets Tuesday morning. He had placed his coat and vest in a small office nearby and when he went to get them at noon he found the jewelry and timepiece was missing. Mr. Ballard suspected some of the negro laborers had stolen his property and that they would attempt to dispose of it at a pawnshop. He hurried to the pawnshop on Market street and was told that three negroes had just tried to pawn some jewelry corresponding with the description of his property. As he left the place the proprietor pointed out three negroes standing nearby, whom he said were the ones who tried to pawn the goods. On catching sight of Mr. Ballard the negroes broke into a run and disappeared. The matter was then reported to the police, but up to the present no arrest has been made.

Coast Line and "Ellen N."

Yesterday's Baltimore Sun in its gossip of the stocks says: "That old threadbare report of 'melon' cutting by the Louisville and Nashville made its rounds today. It was eight months ago that Henry Walters was said to have intimated to a personal friend of a plan under way favorable to shareholders of the famous Walters roads. The plan would benefit Louisville and Nashville mostly. Atlantic Coast Line holders would also come in for a large slice. Louisville and Nashville has enjoyed two or three substantial advances on this report. It would seem time for something to come off if Mr. Walters really intends making a stock distribution. Both Louisville and Nashville and Atlantic Coast Line were strong on the revival of these reports."

Here Looking Over Property

Messrs. W. M. Seabrease, H. M. Watts, T. D. Wheeler and E. E. Jones, of Philadelphia, representing different bonding companies, are spending a few days in the city and at the beach, as guests of the Tidewater Power Company. The visitors are looking over the property of the transportation company, so that if the Tidewater issues any bonds during the year their companies will be in position to make an intelligent bid for the same. The visitors are guests at The Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, during their stay here.

LOCAL DOTS.

—No session of the Recorder's court was held yesterday, Recorder John J. Furlong and Substitute Recorder Geo. Harriss both being in Raleigh for the State convention.

—Paul H. Taylor, colored, was tried before Justice Bornemann yesterday on a charge of vagrancy, and was discharged. The evidence introduced showed the negro to be an honest and hard working boy.

—James Ward and Minerva Green, colored, were married last evening at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride, No. 617 South Fourth street, Rev. Dr. Geo. L. White, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist church, officiating.

—Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, was notified yesterday morning that Mattie Carter, colored, who lived in Brooks' alley, dropped dead Wednesday afternoon about 5 o'clock. It is thought that heart trouble caused her death.

—Through the J. G. Wright & Son real estate agency Mrs. L. L. Newell yesterday purchased from Dr. C. D. Bell, for a consideration of about $5,500, the lot and residence at No. 410 North Third street. The Wright agency sold a residence at Ninth and Taylor streets yesterday to Mr. K. W. Robertson, for a consideration of about $1,000.

Giant Shark Captured

Yesterday's Southport News says: "Capt. W Chapman, of the steamer Lizzie Coleman, reports the catching of the largest shark off Cape Fear a few days ago that has been caught in many years. The shark was 9 feet long and weighed between 250 and 300 pounds. In him was found 52 large fish and one-fourth of a large sea turtle, and still there was room for more. This is again evidence that Southport is on a boom—even the sea animals making their way to this port."

ROOSEVELT TRUST-BUSTING

Prices Soar While Magnates Finance Teddy's Campaign

(By Clyde H. Tavenner).

Washington, D. C., June 6.—Is the beef trust bigger than the United States government?

Made bold by its victory, after a nine-years' delay in the courts, in the famous "trust-busting" suit started against it by former President Roosevelt, this trust has boosted meat prices to the highest figure ever known in this country, not even excepting war times. The trust gives a "shortage in the supply of live stock" as its reason for this increase in prices.

That this excuse is only a subterfuge is shown by the last report of the government bureau of statistics, which shows that instead of a shortage in the live stock supply, there has been a steady increase.

"The supply of cattle that reached the seven principal Western markets in April was greater than in any April of the last decade," the report says. "The number of cattle shipped to Chicago last month was 13 per cent greater than for the same month last year, and 40 per cent greater than for April of 1910. There was a proportionate increase in the supply of hogs and sheep, also, and that the quality of these animals was fully up to the standard of former years is indicated that the supply of dressed meat now on hand in the packers' warehouses is greatly in excess of the amount held there last year."

This report shows that the beef trust has made up its mind to force the consumer to pay the cost of the nine years' suit it has just won. All the big fees paid out to lawyers for keeping the packers out of the penitentiary will be taken from the pockets of the consumers. Nothing must interfere with the trust's dividend.

A sub-committee of the Judiciary Committee of the Democratic House of Representatives has begun an investigation of the beef trust, and its report will be an answer to the question as to whether the beef barons are more powerful than the United States government.

Within three or four years the price of coffee has doubled along with nearly everything else. Evidence has just come to light showing why the price of coffee has increased.

The remarkable feature of the situation is that the increase is not due to increased wages. This is not only remarkable, but phenomenal, especially when we consider that such things as coal and railroad rates and many others would never go up at all if it were not for the demands of the greedy laborer.

Coffee has advanced in price, although production has doubled, because the market supply has been artificially restricted.

In cold storage at Detroit, Mich., are 15,000 quarts of fresh berries. They are held out of the market to keep the price high. Thus capital uses refrigeration, invented to benefit man, for the purpose of exploiting man.

Mr. Roosevelt has repeatedly denounced "boss rule" during his campaign. He has held up to scorn the Penroses, the Lorimers and the Coxes and other bosses not for Roosevelt as typifying the evils of present day politics.

Everyone admits that such men as these should be ousted from power. But are these men, after all, really the greatest danger to this republic?

John D. Rockefeller who has hoarded up a fortune of $900,000,000 through sharp practice and legislative favoritism is not a boss. Andrew Carnegie is not a political boss. J. Pierpont Morgan, who is so anxious to have Roosevelt nominated, was never accused of being a political boss. George W. Perkins, who organized the illegal harvester trust and is financing Roosevelt's campaign, according to sworn statements of the Roosevelt campaign committees, is not a boss. The millionaire owners of the woolen trust and the sugar trust and the steel trust are not "bosses."

The boss issue is largely a false issue. The men who are plundering the people directly and making the common people dissatisfied with the way things are going under this form of government are chiefly the multi-millionaire owners of the tariff trusts, now engaged in financing the Roosevelt campaign, in order to return the colonel to the White House so that he can give instructions to his attorney general not to start suit against illegal trusts like the harvester trust until he gives the word.

Our plans for loing things are made in cents and they come out in dollars.

MINNESOTA FOR WILSON.

Duluth, Minn., June 6.—Minnesota Democrats in State convention today voted to send a full delegation of 24 delegates to the Baltimore convention with instructions to vote for Woodrow Wilson.

It was agreed, however, that whenever, in the opinion of two-thirds of the delegation, Wilson's nomination is impossible the vote may be thrown to another candidate.

Victory came for the Wilson forces only after followers of Champ Clark and William J. Bryan had made an attempt to have the delegates either instructed for Bryan or not instructed at all. As a result of the attempt to stampede the convention for Bryan the hall was in an uproar for more than an hour. During all that time, however, the name of Clark was not mentioned even by those who contended for an uninstructed delegation.

Several delegates who are said to favor Clark are on the list, but tney are under instructions to vote for Wilson.

The Clark manager, H. S. Williams, said after the convention that he would carry his fight to the National convention at Baltimore.

The Wilson men selected Fred B. Lynch, of St. Paul, for National committeeman. It became evident early in the convention that the opposition to Wilson was hopelessly in the minority. John M. Freeman, a Wilson man, was named temporary chairman without opposition. M. C. Tifft, of Minneapolis, was made permanent chairman in the same manner.

Opponents of Wilson made an effort to send the delegates to Baltimore instructed for Bryan or uninstructed. Several laudatory speeches were made in favor of the Nebraskan and his name was loudly cheered.

The clamor for Bryan ended when Guy Thomas, of Minneapolis, read a letter from Mr. Bryan saying he was not a candidate for President and John W. Freeman made an address urging that as the majority of Minnesota voters had named Wilson as their choice the convention should stand by him.

GERMANS AT ANNAPOLIS.

Visiting Officers Inspect U. S. Naval Academy—Leave for Old Point.

Washington, June 6.—Admiral von Rebeur-Paschwitz, with the other 19 officers of the German cruisers Moltke, Stettin and Bremen, delegates to represent the German fleet at Washington, today saw the future officers of the United States Navy undergoing instructions at the naval academy at Annapolis and came away with an excellent impression of the institution and of the cadets.

The visitors left Washington early in the day on a special electric train accompanied by Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, Admiral Ward, Commander Belknap, Lieut. Commanders Bricker and Williams, and other American naval officers, and arrived at the academy shortly after noon. The party was received at the gates by Capt. Gibbons, the superintendent of the academy, while a company of marines was drawn up as a guard of honor and the band played the National anthems of Germany and the United States. At the same time a salute of 19 guns was fired for the ambassador. The officers made an extended tour of inspection of the academy and witnessed the midday parade of the cadets, the line containing about 650 cadets.

The German admiral and Admiral Ward and the superior German officers and the ambassador lunched with Capt. Gibbons, while the other visitors lunched in the officers' quarters, after which the visitors returned to Washington where in the evening they were guests at dinner with the Secretary of the Navy.

Tomorrow, the last day of the visit to the National capital, includes visits to the gun factory and to Washington's tomb at Mount Vernon, the journey to be made on the Mayflower, after which returning they take the night boat for Old Point, where they rejoin the German vessels Saturday morning and immediately sail for New York accompanied by the second division of the Atlantic fleet.

DREAM FIRE CAUSES DEATH.

Fireman Attempts to Slide Down Brass Pole While Asleep.

Chicago, June 6.—While asleep, and yet attempting to slide down the brass pole in a fire engine house, Lieut. Joseph T. Balak fell from the second floor of his quarters today and was killed. There had been no alarm of fire, and circumstances indicated that the lieutenant while in a somnambulistic state believed he was responding to a call of duty.

The strange fall had no witness, and the unconscious lieutenant lay for some time on the cement floor before he was discovered. He was removed to a hospital where he died.

The New Bijou will offer patrons today three fine films of moving pictures and a delightfully cool and pleasant house. Those who have not thus far had an opportunity of seeing Wilmington's new and pretty playhouse should do so today.

The topliner on today's bill is "Broncho Billy's Bible.' Broncho and his partner, after robbing the stage coach, divide the loot and go their ways. After leaving Broncho finds among his share of the booty a well worn Bible which he slips into his inside coat pocket. Going to town he enters a saloon and finds a crooked card game in progress. Broncho accosts the card shark and throws him from the saloon. The ejected one fires at Broncho and the bullet lodges in the Bible saving the cowboy's life. He pursues the card shark into the mountains and after both have emptied their guns, they seek to throw one another from a precipice. A terrible hand-to-hand encounter progresses during which the Bible drops from Broncho's pocket and the words "Thou Shalt Not Kill" stare out from the page at him. He releases his adversary, begins a study of the Divine word and is made a better man. The story is full of thrills and withal teaches a strong moral lesson. This with two others should make a most attractive bill at the New Bijou today.

At the Grand Theatre.

Three great films in high-class motion pictures, splendid music by the superb orchestra and a delightfully cool and pleasant house are offered patrons at The Grand Theatre day in and day out.

It would be hard to say that one bill was better than another, but the one today will be featured by a picture that is bound to appeal to the masses. "Life With a Circus" is always interesting and when the "big show" comes to town the small boy and his elder brother are usually up with the lark to greet the train at the nearest siding to the show grounds. The Grand offers today this film by the Selig people and it will be found an exceptional educational subject showing in intimate reality life behind the scenes of a big circus. The precision and the regularity that is required in the operation of the average big show is pointed to everywhere. In this picture the clock-work of circus life is shown in a remarkably realistic way and one that is bound to attract and amuse. From unloading the animals in the early dawn to the daring, thrilling, death-defying acts on the flying trapeze in the big arena, this picture features everything of interest to the public.

Remember that the Grand is the most pleasant place in town and the patron is always given an enthusiastic welcome.

Delegates Were Instructed For Clark —Committeemen Elected

Little Rock, Ark., June 6.—The Democratic State Convention adjourned late this afternoon after ratifying the election of 14 district delegates selected in district caucuses, electing eight delegates at large with half a vote each and electing Judge W. M. Kavanaugh, of Little Rock, National committeeman to succeed Guy B. Tucker, also of Little Rock. A resolution adopted last night in advance of the election of delegates instructed the State's delegation to vote for Champ Clark for President in the National convention at Baltimore.

At his bedside when he passed away were Governor Foss, Congressman Foss and other members of the family.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

COTTON ADVANCES SHARPLY

The Market Was Very Much More Active and Prices Moved Upward. Close Was Steady at a Gain of 20 to 23 Points.

New York, June 6.—The cotton market was very much more active today and prices advanced sharply on continued trade buying and covering by recent sellers. The close was very steady, at a net gain of from 20 to 23 points.

The market opened steady, at an advance of from 2 to 5 points, in sympathy with relatively steady cables. Generally speaking, a favorable view appeared to be taken of the weather map and advices from a prominent traveling crop expert were received shortly after the opening, to the effect that the crop as a whole had steadily improved for the past month, but prices continued to work higher and the market toward midday became rather excited. There did not seem to be any change in the general character of the news, but recent sellers were said to be uneasy and there was active buying by uptown and Wall Street interests, who were supposed to be covering cotton sold before the publication of the bureau report. There was also support from trade interests and while slight declines occurred from time to time the general tendency of the market was upward until in the late trading active months were selling from 22 to 27 points net higher. Closing prices were within 2 or 3 points of the best. There was some talk of excessive rain in the Eastern belt and that rains were needed in parts of the Western belt, and with the official forecast for continued unsettled weather east of the Mississippi river, this may have contributed somewhat to the buying movement. Judging from the gossip around the street, however, the advance was more generally attributed to covering by shorts who found that their sales had lodged in the hands of trade interests or other strong holders. Reports of a better spot demand and the larger sales reported in some of the Southern markets were probably a factor on the late advance and the disposition of shorts to cover was partly attributed to the failure of the market to weaken under the recent favorable weather and crop advices.

Receiptts, 6,871, against 5,711 last week, and 1,746 last year; today's receipts at Galveston, 376, against 743 last year; at New Orleans, 755, against 200 last year, and at Houston, 302, against 115 last year.

Spot closed steady, 20 points higher. Middling uplands, 11.65; do. gulf, 11.90; sales, 300 bales.

Futures closed very steady.

ANOTHER ADVANCE IN STOCKS

The Upward Movement Continued Yesterday and Dealings Were Large and Diversified—Metal Stocks Active.

New York, June 6.—The upward movement in stocks was continued today. Dealings in the early part of the session were uncommonly large and diversified, although much of the activity was in the industrial division, to the comparative neglect of the railway issues. Another advance in the price of copper here and abroad served to stimulate the metal stocks, Amalgamated rising to 88, its highest price in over two years, with a general hardening of allied shares. United States Steel was pushed forward on extensive operations to its best price in over a fortnight, and American Smelting was seemingly in good demand. The early advance was a point or more in Reading, Lehigh Valley, Louisville & Nashville, Erie, second preferred, and Denver and Rio Grande, pfd.

Much of the early activity died down in the afternoon, with some irregularity of prices, a few of the more prominent issues declining to a fraction under yesterday's close. From this level fresh buying started another advance, the copper shares attaining their best quotations with isolated movements elsewhere, as for instance, in Pennsylvania, which announced some new financing by the sale of $6,000,000 of 4 per cent. equipment certificates running from 1 to 10 years. Norfolk & Western, which is under Pennsylvania control, also became moderately active at a substantial advance, presumably in response to its excellent April earnings. The closing was notable for another spurt in the metal stocks and more miscellaneous issues, while the coolers reflected sub-surface selling.

Crop news was plentiful and mostly favorable.

Bonds as a whole were firm, except for weakness in Denver & Rio Grande 4s. Chino-Copper 6s rose 8 points.

Total sales, par value, $2,713,000. United States 4s, registered, were ¼ per cent. higher, on call. Total sales of stocks today, 600,500 shares.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs.

After a frightful coughing spell a man of Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonsful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption today if I had not used this great remedy." It's guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at R. R. Bellamy.

This lady suffered agonies for years

All doctors and medicines failed to help her until she found "B.B.B."

She is Miss Lula Banks of Chambers Co., Alabama.

"I had a long spell of typhoid fever", she writes. "From that my decline was gradual. A large lump appeared in my right side and I was examined by dozens of physicians, among them the President of the Board in Atlanta, Ga. One said it was a fever cake; another said gallstones; another enlargement of the fallopian tubes.

"I took 25 kinds of medicine from one physician. I had other long spells of typhoid. I had a critical case of Septic fever. I suffered agonies with my stomach and bowels. Once hemorrhages came on; and every one thought I was dying.

"At last, hank God! someone gave me a bottle of B.B.B. Heaven bless the man that gave it to me and ten thousand blessings on the one that made it. All these years nothing did me any good except for a short time. But B.B.B. has entirely cured me. I was almost a skeleton when I commenced to take it. Now I weigh 147 pounds. B.B.B. is the best woman's medicine in the world."

Yes. And it is the best medicine for ulcers, rheumatism, catarrh and every form of blood trouble. B.B.B. creates pure rich blood. And that is the real cure for every bodily ill. Here is a sure relief for your trouble, too.

Your druggist will supply you. Insist on a trial of B.B.B. And ask for it today.

CRAIG AND DAUGHTRIDGE HEAD DEMOCRATIC TICKET

contest for the Senatorship with a primary scheduled for November, there should be no such expression as the majority report carried.

The report of the committee on platform declares for progress in road-building, in education, including such school policy as will advance the farm life conditions. It opposes special privileges to corporations or individuals, declares against trusts and monopolies and calls for both personal and corporate responsibility; protective tariff is denounced and demand made for limiting to an economical administration of government, State and National.

Fight on Senator Simmons.

The convention was thrown into an uproar when Mr. Morrison, chairman of the committee, submitted the majority report of that committee providing for the endorsement of the State's Senators and Representatives and of the Governor and other State officials.

The supporters of Governor Kitchin opposing Senator Simmons for Congress, with an attack on that Senator as a basis, fought the endorsement of Mr. Simmons' record. The contest lasted for two hours.

Mr. Morrison advocated his resolution with vigor, telling of Senator Simmons' work and declaring that all he asked was fair play. Somebody yelled, He declared, the tenor of the minority report was so worded as to be a criticism. The committee had adopted the report by a vote of 7 to 3.

Ex-Judge Manning and Claude Kitchin were two members in the minority. The speaker declared that Simmons was being attacked for voting with other Democrats in the Senate. It was hard to tell how the delegates stood. Mr. Morrison declared the Kitchin crowd would not consent to orderly debate. He said his resolution was approved by 75 per cent., also of the Democrats of North Carolina. It did simple justice to all of the State's Democrats. Mr. Morrison said he wished he could discuss the Lorimer case. Senator Simmons sat as a juror. He was sworn to weigh the evidence and did so. When new evidence was developed, Mr. Simmons voted to re-open the case. The Senator simply did his duty and they were attempting to crucify him for it.

When Mr. Manning rose, somebody yelled: "Sub-Section A-1907. How did you vote?" It was hard to distinguish what Mr. Manning said. The noise being deafening. The speaker smilingly faced the hall. He ceased speaking. He raised his hand, Chairman Winston rapped for order. Cameron Morrison appealed to the hall to hear Mr. Manning. Amid all the confusion it was impossible to hear the speaker. He finally closed while the delegates yelled for a vote.

W. C. Hammer, of Asheboro, said the delegates did not come here to consider the issues of the Senatorial campaign. He did not think this the time nor the place to air the differences of Democrats. Mr. Hammer appealed to them as Democrats to endorse Kitchin's administration. If they refused to do so it would be taken advantage of by the Republicans and they would use it as a club to maul the party.

A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, declared that there was another distinguished Democrat as a candidate for Senator. Clark, Aycock, Simmons and Kitchin had agreed to a primary. He said he understood that the delegates were not in the air as to an endorsement. He declared that it was not a question of a majority, but one of principle. He said the committee had not heard any endorsement of Chief Justice Walter Clark and he asked in the name of common justice to leave the matter to the 150,000 people of North Carolina.

J. D. Murphy, of Buncombe, declared the question is whether we will meet the common enemy with an endorsement of Governor Kitchin and his able State Council and the ten Congressmen and two Senators. This has been done heretofore; you will need it, he declared.

Chairman Winston then asked if the minority report should be adopted. When he announced that the clerk would call the roll, John D. Bellamy, of New Hanover, appealed to be heard and advanced to the platform. At the outset Mr. Bellamy said he yielded to no man in his Democracy. He asked how was it possible to endorse Mr. Simmons for his votes against reciprocity, for Lorimer and at the same time endorse Mr. Overman who voted for reciprocity and against Lorimer. He stopped speaking and Cameron Morrison again took the floor, but was not allowed to speak. The noise sounded like a fire alarm. The chair ordered the debate closed and a roll call vote was taken.

The question was whether the platform should specifically endorse the North Carolina delegation in Congress and the administration of Governor Kitchin in the State or simply endorse the record of the Democrats, State and National.

The roll call vote showed the adoption of the majority report, though voting down the minority report, 598 to 363. This is regarded as a distinct victory for the Simmons forces in the Senatorial fight.

For Corporation Commissioner

The nomination of Corporation Commissioners was taken up at 12:30 this morning. E. L. Travis was presented by R. A. Doughton and seconded by Congressman Small, and S. G. Daniel by John Kerr, these being for the short term. The roll call resulted 556 for Travis; 368 for Daniel; 32 for Bagwell.

It is said that the Simmons forces had organized seven of the ten Congressional districts in the State and that they were in perfect control of the convention before it convened. The credentials committee consisted of T. W. Costin, First district; J. H. Carr, Second district; J. H. Bell, Third district; T. M. Arrington, Fourth district; Hugh Chatham, Fifth district; A. W. McLean, Sixth district; J. A. Lockhart, Seventh district; J. D. Fletcher, Eighth district; J. B. Ray, Ninth district; R. L. Madison, Tenth district. There were no contests.

The platform committe by districts is as follows: First, R. S. Neal; Second, Claude Kitchin; Third, A. D. Ward; Fourth, W. D. Siler; Fifth, Jas. S. Manning; Sixth, J. O. Carr, Seventh, W. C. Hammond; Eighth, J. A. Hartness; Ninth, Cameron Morrison; Tenth, J. D. Murphy. In the Second district the Simmons men lacked but three votes of electing their man for the platform committee over Congressman Claude Kitchin.

The fight between Wilson and Underwood for control is being made upon instructing delegates to the National convention. The Underwood forces seek to prevent instructions but the outlook is for a victory for the Wilson forces.

The Sixth District

The Sixth Congressional District Convention met here this morning before the State Democratic Convention convened and named delegates to the National Democratic Convention and elected members of the executive committee. The convention named four delegates to the National convntion, each to have a half vote. They are H. C. McQueen, New Hanover; Joe Underwood, Fayetteville; A. J. McKinnon Roberson, and O. L. Clark, Bladen. This delegation is said to be an even break between Wilson and Underwood for President. There was a motion by J. R. Baggett, of Harnett, that the delegates to the National convention be instructed for Wilson. Pandemonium reigned while substitutes were being shouted that there be instructions for Underwood and also for no instructions.

The Sixth district is said to be an even break between Wilson and Underwood for President. As members of the executive committee there were named E. F. McCullock, Bladen; J. J. Furlong, New Hanover; Geo. H. Bellamy, Brunswick; E. F. Young, Harnett; A. W. McLean, Robeson and T. A. Lyon, Cumberland.

There was a motion by J. R. Baggett, of Harnett, that the delegates to the National convention be instructed for Wilson. A shout of opposition arose and pandemonium reigned while substitutes were being shouted that there be instructions for Underwood and also for no instructions. The chairman was powerless to restore order. Baggett appealed that the convention get in order and save the reputation of the district. He declared he had never seen such disorder since the last Sixth district convention. Finally a motion to adjourn was carried by a vote of 232 to 22. Chairman Geo. H. Bellamy called the convention to order and called Col. Walker Taylor to the chair. L. Sefel and J. S. Moore were made secretaries.

Pell Is Nominated

For the long term Corporation Commissioner, Geo. P. Pell, Forsyth; A. J. Maxwell, Craven; W. L. Arendell Beaufort; A. B. Justice, Mecklenburg, were presented. The vote resulted from first ballot, Pell 509; Maxwell 203; Justice 205; Arendell 3. Pell was declared the nominee.

The convention adopted a resolution of sympathy for Hon. Ashley Horne, of Clayton, who is seriously ill at his home.

Sixth District Delegates.

Raleigh, N. C., June 6.—The North Carolina Sixth Congressional District Democratic Convention today elected H. C. McQueen, of New Hanover; A. J. McKinnon, of Robeson; O. L. Clark, of Bladen, and J. B. Underwood, of Cumberland, as delegates to Baltimore with half a vote each. They were not instructed, a resolution to instruct for Governor Wilson having been defeated. Sentiment for Representative Underwood and Governor Wilson seemed to be about evenly divided and it was asserted the delegates would vote for the strongest man.

Opening Preliminaries

Raleigh, N. C., June 5.—The convention was opened in the auditorium at noon by State Chairman A. H. Eller. The seating capacity of the immense convention hall was taxed, there being over 2,000 delegates and probably 3,000 spectators.

Rev. H. M. North, of Edenton Street Methodist Church, offered the prayer and there were welcome addresses limited to 15 minutes for the two by Mayor James I Johnson and Hon. Jas. H. Pou, the latter outlining especially the arrangements for the entertainment of the delegates and extending them the freedom of the city to the fullest extent.

While James H. Pou was speaking Former Governor T. J. Jarvis entered the convention hall and was loudly cheered, the fact becoming known in this connection that he this morning gave out a statement to the effect that while he has been advocating the nomination of Harmon for President he is now convinced that the thing for North Carolina to do is to instruct her delegates to Baltimore for Woodrow Wilson.

State Chairman Eller spoke briefly of the record of the Democratic party during the time that he has been chairman, ridiculing the Republicans in their effort to regain control of the State. He stirred laughter by declaring that "Butler came back but couldn't stay."

Chairman Eller called Governor Glenn to preside as temporary chairman and he made a stirring keynote speech declaring especially for good roads and further educational advancement in State affairs and for Democratic principles in National affairs. His references to Harmon and Clark stirred some applause that swelled into an ovation when Woodrow Wilson was mentioned and a demonstration of very nearly as great proportions when Oscar Underwood was named and receded only slightly when "The peerless Commoner, Bryan," came in for preference.

Chairman Glenn presented to the convention Former Governor T. J. Jarvis who offered a resolution paying tribute to the lamented Charles B. Aycock as citizen and statesman and commending the movement under the auspices of the Aycock Memorial Association for erecting a statue to him in Capital Square and founding an educational memorial to this great educational Governor. The resolutions were adopted by rising vote.

Chairman Glenn ordered the calling of the list of ten districts and each announced its members on the committee on permanent organization and other officers. These committeemen were directed to meet immediately in the municipal building adjacent to the auditorium and a motion by Gen. B. S. Royster, of Granville, that the convention adjourn to 3 o'clock was carried almost without opposition in spite of great numbers of protests that went up when the motion to adjourn was first made.

mittee); Thomas H. Devine, of Denver, for Charles Cavender, of Colorado; Representative Henry Bartholdt, for Charles Nagel, of Missouri; Dr. O. M. Landstrum, for T. A. Marlow, of Montana; Dennis Flynn for C. M. Cade, of Oklahoma; Senator Sanders, Tennessee, for S. A. Perkins, Washington; A. M. Stevenson, Colorado, for N. B. Scott, West Virginia; I. C. O'Loughlin, Chicago, for Sidney Beiber, District of Columbia.

Senator Dixon, Col. Roosevelt's manager, had the proxy of T. L. Flanigan, of Nevada, but declined to use it because of his partisan interest in the committee's activity. He turned this proxy over to Representative L. N. Littauer, a Roosevelt delegate from New York, but the committee declined to admit Mr. Littauer without a direct proxy from Mr. Flanigan.

A statement issued tonight by Congressman William B. McKinley, head of the Taft forces, says:

"Of the 53 States and Territories and districts represented in the Republican National Convention this year, President Taft has the entire delegations or a majority of the delegations from 20 States in the North and West, 10 from the South, and five from the District of Columbia and Territories, or a total of 35. Mr. Roosevelt has the delegations, or the majority of them from 14 States in the North and West and two from the South, or a total of 16. Senator Robert M. LaFollette has two, Wisconsin and North Dakota.

Furthermore, President Taft has representation on the delegations from seven of the States which Mr. Roosevelt has carried in this contest, increasing the number of political units represented in his total of delegates to 42 out of 53 in the convention.

"In the face of this analysis of the delegations by States, as they have been elected to the Chicago convention, the utter absurdity of the claims of Mr. Roosevelt and his managers that they control the coming convention is apparent. They will have, in fact, all the difficulty possible in managing the so-called Roosevelt "sure" delegates, which already realize that they are being led into a ditch, if not into an actual bolt by a lost cause."

United States Senator Dixon, when told of the committee's action in voting for sessions open to the press, stated that the decision was a victory in the committee for Col. Roosevelt. In this connection he said:

"This is the first time we ever have had any publicity of these matters at all, and it is the result of the demand made by the friends of Col. Roosevelt."

He declared in conclusion that "beyond question we have the legitimate votes to nominate Roosevelt by a safe majority."

It was learned tonight that the Southern representation question, which has been discussed quadrennially by the party leaders, was disposed of by a unanimous vote of the National committee, recommending to the convention that the present plan of delegate representation be allowed to stand.

Foudy Dispatches Flynn to Chicago

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 6.—State Senator William Flynn, of Pittsburg, was dispatched post haste to Chicago by Colonel Roosevelt tonight to act as the ex-President's representative in the fight before the National committee over seating contested dlgats. The decision was reached after a conference at Sagamore Hill tonight in which the situation at Chicago, as told to the colonel over his private wires from the seat of war, was discussed.

Colonel Roosevelt was careful to explain that the leadership of his fight would remain where it has been, in the hands of Senator Dixon, his campaign manager.

"Senator Flynn starts for Chicago at once," he said. "He is going at my request. Senator Dixon will be in charge. Mr. Flynn will assist him.

The decision to send Mr. Flynn to Chicago was reached so suddenly that he was barely able to catch the last train tonight from Oyster Bay, intending to take a midnight train from New York for the West.

Mr. Flynn was a leader in Colonel Roosevelt's campaign in Pennsylvania.

Three other Roosevelt men from Pennsylvania participated in the conferences. They were E. A. VanValkenberg, publisher of the Philadelphia North American, who took a prominent part in the Roosevelt campaign in the State; Richard Quay, a son of the late Senator Matthew S. Quay and Alexander Moore, publisher of the Pittsburg Leader.

The question whether Colonel Roosevelt will go to Chicago was discussed, but no deflite decision was reached. He indicated more strongly than before, however, that there was a chance that he would go by fixing approximately the time at which he would depart in case he decided to make his fight at Chicago in person.

"I may go to Chicago at the end of next week," he put it. "I have not decided yet, however."

The colonel was told of the report that Congressman McKinley, President Taft's campaign manager, would invite him to attend the sessions of the National committee.

"I have not heard anything about it," he responded. "If Mr. McKinley does extend the invitation, will you accept?" he was asked.

'I shall not answer any hypothetical questions," he said. "If I do receive such an invitation I will say then what I shall do."

Colonel Roosevelt said he was in favor of the widest publicity of the hearings before the National committee.

"I regret that all the representatives of newspapers were not admitted to the hearing today," he said. "I am glad that the press associations were admitted, but that is not enough. In many parts of the country, notably in New York, one of our most serious difficulties has been the constant suppression of the news so that the great masses of the people have been kept in ignorance of what has happened."

San Francisco, Cal., June 6.—A bomb exploded tonight in the back yard of the residence of Tom Corbett. Last Friday night Corbett's pool room was dynamited as were two other pool rooms. Wednesday night a bomb was exploded in a vacant lot near another pool room. The series of explosions is thought to be part of a gambling war.

CLARK GETS W. VA.

Speaker Received Unqualified Endorsement of the Democracy

Parkersburg, W. Va., June 6.—Champ Clark received the unqualified endorsement of the West Virginia Democracy today. In State convention the six delegates at large were instructed to vote for him at Baltimore as long as there was any hope of his nomination. At district conventions earlier in the week Clark had received six instructed delegates, two uninstructed were favorable to him and two more were uninstructed, but were said to favor Governor Harmon, of Ohio.

While leaders were reasonably certain the convention would endorse the Clark candidacy, sentiment for a time caused excitement. National Committeeman John T. McGraw in convention, said he favored Governor Woodrow Wilson and Henry Cassaway Davis, candidate for Vice President in 1904, said his favorite was Governor Harmon. There was confusion for awhile, but Mr. Davis said Governor Harmon was his first choice, but he was ready to abide with the convention. The name of William J. Bryan was brought up by Mr. McGraw and was greeted with cheers.

McGraw was re-elected as a member of the National committee.

ARGUMENT CONTINUES

Myrtle Hawkins Case Will Go to Jury Saturday

Hendersonville, N. C., June 6.—Argument continued in the Myrtle Hawkins case here today, five more attorneys being heard by the jury. This leaves six more attorneys to speak and the argument will hardly be concluded tomorrow. The case will hardly reach the jury until some time Saturday.

The feature of today's argument was the speech of Judge O. V. F. Blythe, who declared that the press had dealt a foul blow to Hendersonville by the publicity given the case. He said the minds of the public had been inflamed, and that the evidence failed to bear out newspaper statements. Charles French Toms, Mayor Staton, O. K. Bennett and J. G. Justice also spoke.

The argument has been carefully conducted on account of the presence of ladies in the court room.

Lynchburg, Va., June 5.—The Virginia Federation of Labor in annual convention here today by a large majority adopted a resolution endorsing equal suffrage and another providing for a State committee to recommend to labor voters candidates meriting their support after first inquiring into the merits of the candidates to be voted upon.
